Ope Birmingham Eccentric Hoover's Contempt Of Mitchell Hoover's Contempt Of Mitchel Indictment of Charles E. Mitchell, former head of the National City Bank, of New York City, remind us of the Contempt that wreashed President Hoaver lips the night last September when our Michigas anewspaper group met with him in the White House The Contempt was revealed when Mr. Hoover remarked that 'there are traitor both within and with out the United States who are increasing the problems attending this depression." One of them must have been recorded in Mr. Hoover's mind as one Mitchell, of New York City.

This episode is revealed in a clearer light when one, teads the following comment from the Kanasa City Star:

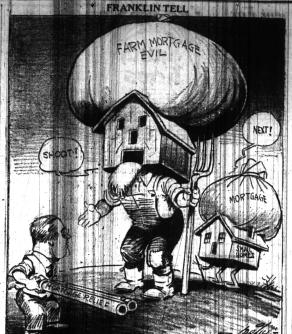

Two years ago Charles E. Mitchell had a violent cun-sit with President Hoover. The story has leaked but that at a conference of bankers called by the President affect Regland went off gold, Mitchell refused at first to acquiece in the plan for the National Credit Corporation. His semantals of the National Credit Corporation were more responsible than any other one man for keeping the crazy bull tharket sping. When we were trying to pus on the braket you interfered within a Now that the creats has come you refuse to help us pick up the pieces.
