There are some son doo of you, in those cities, villages and tompships. We have a lot or things to tell you which are or interest because you are our oustoners. We might got your attention by diroulars delivered at your door, or by radio broadcast. At this time we think the best way to reach you is by successive letters in the newspapers, of which this is the

This is not a hard luck story. We have money locked up the closed banks and trust companies, just as many of you have ot broke nor are we grumbling about that.
