A KINDERGARTEN LESSON

Ships and Sealing Wax

By ALLEN TRONDY - Well, I expect business will pick up a bit with the rhumba dancers and artists' models at the World's Fair during the next few days...

It must have gotten pretty bad in the week or two, I suppose. I met Sally Rand and her two fans, together with the well-timed guitar player...

But perhaps the Democrats haven't got quite enough money and does by giving out to say that the Mayor of Chicago, Edward J. Kelly himself...

It may be lack of money, and it may be something else, but in any case the fact remains that business had among the big and top artists at this World's Fair...

Sally Rand and the judge did this, and apparently it wasn't enough, as now although the new Mayor of Chicago, Edward J. Kelly himself...

Now that I contend, is practically perfect if, within six hours, the Mayor says around that there was a dancer at the Oriental Village...

But that isn't all! Mayor Kelly's neighbors in the Midway... Not by long shot. Not by a long shot.

The Mayor started his investigation by calling in Rufus H. Dawes, president of the World's Fair Corporation...

"What is it?" asked the man. "Why, that's a jodding-glass... as there are in this village, they are mean, selfish, greedy, vain, and cruel..."

BOY WANTED - WANTED - A boy for rapid promotion... A boy who looks you straight in the eye and tells the truth every time...

Thinking it over, I suspect that Mayor Kelly, by his capable aides, did considerably more for the Century of Progress's people...

Nevertheless, I don't think the effect will last anywhere near the duration the Fair, and I have a hunch there'll be...
