Huyette-Biddulph Ceremony To Be Solemnized In Garden

Wedding Will Be Small And Guests Limited To Family And Intimate Friends

Social interest in the Hills this week and last has focused largely on the wedding plans of Miss Hannah Barker Huyette, whose marriage to C. Ahmed Biddulph of Glen Ridge, N. Y., will be an event of Saturday evening. The ceremony will be performed in the garden at Rocky Terrace, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Huyette, parents of the bride-elect, at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of her immediate relatives and a few close friends. The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, will lead the nuptial service.

Mrs. Hawhurst And Frederick Riebel Will Be Married In League Chapel

A wedding of interest to friends in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills will be performed by Rev. Frederick Riebel, pastor of the League Chapel at 4 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception in the alumnae room. Miss Hawhurst is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Merritt M. Hawhurst.

Open Hunt Sets Date For Autumn Meeting

B. E. Hopper Named Chairman Of Committee In Charge Of Event

Now that the hunters' show is over, the next event on the exhibition calendar is the Bloomfield open race meet scheduled to take place Saturday, Sept. 16, on the Alger Farm course, located four miles north and one and one-half miles east of Oxford.

There will be a buffet luncheon at the Metamora (club) at 12:30, and the first of the seven races will be run at 2 P. M. The highlight of this meet is the President's cup Steeplechase, the fifth year on record, and for which the trophy is donated each year by Frank J. Navin, president of the Central Racing Association. Last year's winner, racing enthusiasts will recall, was Frip Cey, owned by C. G. Lerebun.

The first event of the day will be a 1 1/4 mile flat race, to be followed by a one-quarter-mile flat race. The third will be the brush race for qualified hunters. Partners of the Metamora community or members of their families will be eligible to enter horses or to ride in the fourth race which will be run on a one-quarter-mile flat course.

Plans Under Way For Parents May Adjust Child To New Home Environment

When Family Moves, Boys' And Girls' Social Problems Must Be Solved

In virtually every attic stands a trunk of old books, forgotten by the family until moving day arrives. In such collections are these books in ill looks for which there is no longer space in the home. Mrs. Robert F. Watt, of Hanna street, is considerably interested at the present time.

Those who are moving from the city or into smaller living quarters and have books and magazines they wish to contribute are asked to communicate with Mrs. Watt. The sale will be held this year the week of Oct. 12-21. During the summer, Mrs. Watt and her associates have collected volumes for the sale and have stored them in the basement of the Central Library. Mrs. Watt announced yesterday that she will be glad to pick up collections of books at Old St.

Parents May Adjust Child To New Home Environment

When Family Moves, Boys' And Girls' Social Problems Must Be Solved

Parents of very young children with no same-age playmates near by must make a sacrifice to provide their children from anywhere possible, any kind of children rather than none, and to take your child at frequent intervals where you can have free play equipment when the neighborhood playground is closed. It is suggested that you have some toys at hand, such as blocks, puzzles, and other toys, which you can take to the child's new home.
