

STAMP SALES ON INCREASE

Drive Launched To Protect Local Postoffice's First Class Rating

Stamp sales at the Birmingham Postoffice have taken a sharp upward turn since the organization of a committee...

The committee was formed at a meeting attended by representatives of Birmingham's three service clubs...

Members of the committee are urging business men and others to buy as many stamps as possible...

Among the curtailments in postal service which might result from a first class rating, according to Mr. Byrne, are curtailment of the delivery limits and reduction in the number of daily deliveries from two to one...
