HOLIDAY DANCE WELL ATTENDED

Informally Prevails As Guests Take Part in Gay Steps of Other Days.

The holiday spirit was in 'high feather' at the Community House Wednesday evening when a large number of Birmingham residents gathered to enjoy a community dance, held under auspices of the House Committee.

Christmas decorations adorned the auditorium, adding gaiety to the occasion. The merry informality of the old fashioned dances contrasted with the more rapid tempo of modern steps in a dance program which combined the two.

Many of the guests attended in groups varying from four to larger numbers. In one party which held a pot-luck supper before the dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Elliott of Townsend avenue, included Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Franklin, and Dr. and Mrs. N. Weir Burdman.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Wineinger of Hanna street were hosts also at a pot-luck dinner before the dance. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Crull, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dewey Kimball, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Beale.

Birmingham Home Is Scene of Pre-Christmas Nuptials

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Saturday at high noon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Parker of Kennesaw drive, when Mrs. Parker's sister, Miss Jeanne Fulcher of Three Rivers, Mich., became the bride of Albro M. Andrews, son of Mrs. S. M. Andrews of Welleley, Mass. Mrs. Fulcher, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Fulcher of Three Rivers, was given in marriage by her father.

The nuptial service was performed by the Rev. W. Clarence Wright of the First Presbyterian Church before the fireplace, which was banked with Christmas greens and white roses.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Edward M. Smith, Jr. of Detroit, as matron of honor, and as bridesmaids, Miss Lois Andrews of Montreal, and Mrs. Francis Birkel of Detroit. Two small nieces of the bride, Barbara Sisson of Kalamazoo, and Mary Jean Henderson of Birmingham, assisted as flower girls. Edward M. Smith, Jr. of Detroit acted as best man. The bride was simply gowned in a robe of white satin made with high neck and long sleeves, with which she wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white gardenias, sweet peas and rosebuds. Her only ornament was a pearl brooch worn by her great-grandmother on the day of her wedding.

Mrs. Smith's gown was fashioned of peach colored crepe, and her flowers consisted of an old-fashioned bouquet of orchids, sweet peas and tulle roses. The bridesmaids were garbed alike in blue chiffon and carried quaint bouquets of pink sweet peas and rosebuds. The small flower girls were daintily adorned in pale pink tulle, with nosegays of mignonette, sweet peas and rosebuds.

Mrs. J. Neelken, a sister of the bride, played the wedding march from "Lohengrin", as the bridal party entered. A wedding breakfast for the 40 guests who attended followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left for a western wedding journey. They will make their home in Easton, Ill.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. John B. Fulcher and Miss Catherine Fulcher of Three Rivers, the Misses Margaret Armstrong, Helen Eberley and Antoinette Ash, all of Three Rivers; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sisson and their children, Barbara and Bill, of Kalamazoo, and Miss Lois Andrews of Montreal.

For Gas Service

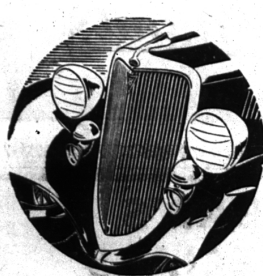

WHEN IT COMES to serving you, there's no 40-hour week here—it's 168 hours every week—168 hours of being on the job, maintaining service night and day, whether business is good or bad or not at all—so that no matter what or when your need arises, it may be served. Whether thousands draw on the lines for the gas that does cooking, heating and other tasks so well, or singly, the tiniest burner in the smallest home in the farthest corner of the community—the service must be there!

Unlike many another industry, this Company cannot close up shop when business falls off, nor can it make up a batch of "orders" one month and shut down the next. It must never stop—a vast organization must be ever on duty. Costs go on night and day. This is but one item in the many operations that bring you useful gas service—one item in its price.

Another is taxes—which today have mounted to the point where they take one-eighth of this Company's entire business; or more than a month-and-a-half of earnings out of the year. Taxes paid by Consumers Power Company in your community are a direct cash benefit to all other taxpayers and citizens in helping pay the cost of government, of police and fire protection, streets, schools, etc. Every business enterprise should, without exception, pay its share of fair taxation. Any exemption means that much more added to taxes on your property and income—and you pay taxes in many ways whether you own or rent.

This company does its part.

Let the car speak for itself

HUNDREDS of thousands of people now own and drive Ford V-8 cars. Some neighbor or friend of yours has one. If we told you what we think of the car, you might say we are prejudiced, so we let the car and its owner tell you.

Economy of operation is one of the first points they will emphasize—the owner will boast of it and the car will prove it.

The 1934 car is even better than the 1933—and that was our best car up to its time. The new car is more beautiful—faster—more powerful—gives more miles to the gallon—better oil economy—is easier riding—cheaper to own and operate than any car we ever built.

You owe it to yourself and your pocketbook to ask our Ford Dealer to let you see this car, and let you drive it for yourself. At the wheel of the car you will be sure to reach a right decision. The Ford V-8 will tell you its own story.
