CRANES BEAT COUNTRY DAY

Field Goal In Last 15 Seconds Spells 17-16 Victory

One point decided another Cranbrook basketball game when the Crane quintet defeated Shaw's Detroit Country Day School, 17 to 16, at Cranbrook Tuesday. Both teams put up marvelous defenses, but the attacks that accompanied them were shining only in spots.

The outcome was settled when Victor Pattengill, Cranbrook left forward, dropped a short shot with 15 seconds left to play.

Two baskets in the first minute of the opening quarter gave Cranbrook an early lead, and the Crane's ball-hawk defense stretched the advantage to 11 to 6 at the half by turning back the visitors' attacks.

With three minutes left in the third quarter, Harris of Shaw sank a field goal which gave his team a 14 to 13 lead, and Hardcastle tied it up at 14-all as the quarter ended. Keith Pattengill found the basket in the middle of the fourth quarter, but Nederlander again put his team ahead, 16 to 15, with a long shot. Then Vic Pattengill's basket in the closing seconds broke up the game.

Haass of Shaw led the scoring with five points, and Persson of Cranbrook was second with six.

Cranbrook's next game will be played Friday with the Albion College Freshmen.

Clevelanders Win By One Point

A short shot by Robert Carey Cleveland University School forward, resulted in a field goal which defeated the Cranbrook School quintet at Cranbrook Saturday, 17 to 16. Cranbrook had led all the way until Carey's toss was netted with 35 seconds left to play.

The game started out slowly, and it was not until the last minutes of the opening period that Cranbrook got three baskets and University School netted a free throw to bring the score to 6-1 for the round. The second quarter was more exciting, and the teams were never far apart, the half ending with Cranbrook leading by a 12 to 10 count.

The local five led, 14 to 13, at the three-quarters mark, and Foster's basket stretched it to a three-point lead as the last period opened. The game looked like a Cranbrook victory, but with one minute left to play, Terry Kennedy visiting guard, looped in a long shot and 25 seconds later Carey flipped in his frantic toss from under the basket for the winning score.

It is true that Cranbrook did not put forth the well-oiled offense and defense the sound showed when it beat Detroit University School a week ago, but it is equally true that the Cleveland team did not display the high-powered scoring machine that its victories in eastern Ohio had credited it with.

The Ohio players won because they were too tall for the Cranbrook cagers, and because they sank five out of 10 foul tries as compared with two out of 11 for Cranbrook. It was simply an off-day for both teams, and the basketball played was none to inspiring.

CRANBROOK TURNS TO SPRING SPORTS

Track Schedule Framed As Cage Hockey Seasons Near Close

With only one more week of games scheduled for the basketball team of Cranbrook School, and further hockey play dependent upon the return of colder weather, Paul C. Thompson, athletic director of the school, has spring schedules under way. The winter sports program will close formally March 4, when the Blue and Gray cagers meet Western Reserve Academy at Hudson, O.

The track schedule has been virtually complete for several months, but one or two changes may yet be made in it. At present it lists the following encounters:

April 28, Michigan State Normal freshmen at Ypsilanti; May 2, Albion College freshmen at Cranbrook; May 13, University of Detroit freshmen at Cranbrook; May 20, Nichols School at Buffalo; May 27, Cleveland Lagerskiy School at Cleveland; June 3, Western Reserve Academy at Cranbrook.

The baseball schedule, not complete as yet, will include games on a home-and-home basis with Michigan State Normal frosh and Hillsdale reserves, single games with Cleveland University School, Howe Military Academy, and Wing Lake A. C. at Cranbrook, and possible encounters with the Western Reserve Academy and Culver. Howard E. Yule will be head coach this year, with W. Boyce Ricketts as assistant.

The tennis schedule, which is of a more informal nature, is not yet fully developed. Under this division comes the State Open Tournaments, which will probably be held again at Cranbrook late this spring. The tennis coach is George T. Nickerson, and Robert Owen is head of the committee handling the tournaments.

Crane Pucksters Defeat Canadians

Trounce Kennedy Tech Juniors, 4-0, In Second Appearance In Windsor Arena

The Cranbrook School pucksters made their second trip to the Windsor Arena a success last Thursday, by defeating the Kennedy Tech juniors of Windsor, 4 to 0, in their first encounter with that school.

Clem Page opened the scoring on a rebound of one of George Otis' shots in the first period, and Otis himself scored on an assist shot immediately afterwards when he twisted through the defense and charged the goalie.

In the second period, Robert Eddy scored on a long left shot, and William Lerchen completed the scoring with a clean shot through one defense man and the goalie.

The Cranbrook victory was due largely in the fast skating and accurate passing of George Otis of Birmingham, and to the tight defense offered by Robert Jones and Robert Gilray.

4 STUDENTS REPORT OVERCOATS STOLEN

Four overcoats have been reported stolen from Baldwin High School student lockers. Clayton Breiesford, Bennet Root, Bill Moss and Philip Welch have all found their coats missing from their hall lockers in the past two weeks.

According to Melvin C. Hart, principal, a student has been placed on duty in the hall during all school hours in an attempt to end the thefts.

News Of Charles Edwards Post No. 14

Louis C. Hoffman, John B. Taylor, J. B. Minton, F. O. Day and Carl Eley have been appointed by the commander as a house committee in charge of the new Legion home on South Woodward avenue. The committee held its first meeting at the home Monday night, and is now considering plans of operation. The group has issued an appeal for the co-operation of all other members of the post in rounding up discarded and used furniture with which to equip the home.

The first public event to be held in the new home will be a bridge party Friday night, sponsored by the auxiliary.

The monthly meeting of the 17th district American Legion will be held Friday night at Rochester.

The next meeting of the Oakland County Council of Veterans will be held Thursday, Mar. 2, at the V. F. W. Home on East Lawrence street, Pontiac.

Eight of the 11 past commanders of the Charles Edwards Post attended the Past Commanders' Night program held in their honor Wednesday of last week. They were Charles B. Randall, Ralph G. Moulthrop, Joseph F. MacGregor, Lloyd L. Stanley, David H. Thompson, Harold H. Corson and Ernest A. Burtraw. H. A. O'Dell and Virgil Lochrow were unable to attend because of illness, and Leon R. Mix has moved from this vicinity.

Past Commanders' badges were presented to each of the eight in attendance by Wilbur McAlpine, who was the first post adjutant. The speakers were Judge Paul V. Gadola of Flint, and Rex Humphrey, commander of the Wayne County Council.

Truck Driver Mixes Coke and Wine: $50

Arrested while driving a double truck load of coke north on Woodward avenue Friday night, Vern Keet, 46 years old, of 810 East Kearsley, Flint, was fined $50 for drunk driving by Justice H. A. O'Dell of Bloomfield Hills Saturday morning. He was given the alternative of 40 days in jail.

Chief of Police William Putman said Keet's truck was careening from one side of the pavement to the other, and that a small quantity of wine was found in his possession.

Neal A. Dulger, 32 years old, of 1200 West Philadelphia street, Detroit, was fined $50 for drunk driving after pleading guilty to the charge before Judge O'Dell Friday night. A companion, Leon G. Kinzak, same address, was fined $25 for being drunk.

The pair, both of whom are salesmen, were arrested Thursday night while driving north on Woodward avenue. A case of beer was found in the car, Chief Putman said. The pair, at first, pleaded not guilty.

The only book about United States telegraph stamps was written by Joseph S. Rich, philatelist.
