SCOUT NEWS
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

By JULES WENZL

The dads of the scouts of Troop B-3 are to be the guests at a Father and Son dinner to be held Friday evening at the Community House. Howard D. Crull, scout commissioner, and W. Stoddard White are to be the principal speakers. Mr. Crull will talk on "What a Scoutmaster Means to a Troop."

Howard Senteny will act as toastmaster. Following the talks, demonstrations in first aid, signaling, and fire by friction and flint and steel will be given by William Merz, Bill Biggers, Charles Wilson, William Laud, Robert Peebles, Jack Reynolds, Bill Martindale and Jim Martindale. Added attractions will be whip-cracking, rope-spinning, knot-tying, and handcuff-making.

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Boy Scouts of Birmingham will gather at Christ Church Cranbrook to observe the 23rd anniversary of scouting in the United States. Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector and a member of the Birmingham District Committee, will be in charge of the service. Commissioner Crull has asked that all scouts make a special effort to be in attendance, attired in full scout uniform. Parents and friends of the scouts are invited to attend.

Saturday morning, Feb. 18, is the date set by the District Committee for the next paper drive. The proceeds received from this drive will be divided among the troops to be used as they see fit.

The Birmingham District Committee has been glad to enter recently in its records the name of Edward Colcott, newly appointed Scoutmaster of Troop B-3. Although he has conducted only one meeting, Mr. Colcott has already proved himself capable of handling and conducting an interesting scouting program.
