Obituary

LEWIS STREETER

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon for Lewis Streeter, of Greenwood Township, St. Clair County, brother of Mrs. Robert Appell of Birmingham who died Jan. 31, exactly a week after funeral services were held for his mother, Mrs. William Streeter of Avoca.

Death was caused by bronchial pneumonia. Mr. Streeter, who was 54 years old, was ill only a week.

Surviving, besides Mrs. Appell, are the widow, Mrs. Ida Streeter; the father, William Streeter of Avoca; a sister, Mrs. Albert Hartwig of Port Huron, and a brother, Phillip, of Avoca.

The services Friday were held from the residence, with interment in Spring Hill Cemetery, Fargo, Mich.

MRS. LOUISE BENNETT

At the age of 71 years, Mrs. Louise Bennett, a former resident of Birmingham, died Tuesday at the home of her son, Herbert Bennett, in Detroit.

Five years ago, Mrs. Bennett resided here with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Marcotte, of Edgewood boulevard, who survives.

Funeral services will be held today in Chatham, Ont., to which the remains were forwarded from Birmingham. Burial will be in the Maplelead Cemetery, Chatham.

Besides her son and daughter, Mrs. Bennett is survived also by three grandchildren.

ELMER A. JONES

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. today for Elmer A. Jones, 71 years old, who died in Detroit Receiving Hospital Tuesday. He was a resident of Birmingham 30 years ago, and was the father of Major S. Jones of Brown street, and Harry H. and Zelda L., both of Chicago.

The service will be conducted from the S. O. Wylie Bell Home for Funerals, with Rev. Russell D. Hopkins of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Roseland Park Cemetery.

MRS. RHODA PARKER

Mrs. Rhoda Parker of Clawson, who survived her sister, the late Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland, by only two weeks, died Monday at her residence at the age of 74 years. Mrs. Sutherland's death occurred Jan. 24 at her residence on Rochester road.

Funeral services for Mrs. Parker were held Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist Church in Clawson, with Rev. James Chapman officiating, assisted by Rev. Clement Ainge.

Surviving are the husband, Frank, a sister, Mrs. Judd Osborne of Pontiac, and two brothers, Charles Hames of Rochester and George Hames of Clawson. Mrs. Parker was a charter member of the Clawson Methodist Church and a member of the Royal Oak Eastern Star.

Burial was in Crooks Cemetery.

JOAN ZEISS

After an illness of three days, Joan Zeiss, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Zeiss, residents of Birmingham until two weeks ago, died Tuesday at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeiss, who now reside on Boston Boulevard in Detroit, moved two weeks ago from their former residence on Pierce street. Joan was born in Los Angeles, Cal., coming here with her parents at the age of three months. She was the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Churchill of Henrietta street.

The body will remain at the S. O. Wylie Bell Home for Funerals until 1 P. M. today, when funeral services will be conducted from the chapel of the First Baptist Church at 2 o'clock. Officiating will be Rev. Ralph Higgins of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit, assisted by Rev. Roy Williamson of the Grand River Avenue Baptist Church of Detroit. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Clerk Will Hire Election Boards

The Village Commission Monday night authorized Miss Irene E. Hanley, village clerk, to procede with the hiring of an election board for the coming city election. The rate of compensation was not fixed, although it was estimated that the total salary expense will be about $200.

Volunteer election boards served without pay at the special election last September, but Miss Hanley recommended that more experienced tellers be employed for the added duties of a regular election. Previous to last September, the rate for compensation for election board members had been reduced from 50 to 35 cents an hour.

Old-Fashioned Dobbin

Little Bessie, aged 4, while in the country last summer was out riding one day when she passed a mare with its colt fastened to the saddle with a halter. "Oh, grandma, look!" she exclaimed, "look at that baby horse tied to its mother's corset."—Baltimore Sun.

A Kind Heart

"It was a nice summer boarder that I had," declared Uncle Heck, as she train pulled out. "But she spiled every critter on the place, cows, pigs, and hosses."

"How was that, Uncle Heck?"

VILLAGERS and the VILLAGE

By THE WANDERER

Birmingham Rotarians Monday noon at the Community House held their annual Father and Son day at each Rotarian bringing a son, or bringing one "loaned" to him for the occasion. The program was under the direction of Robert D. Lynd and Charles James, and consisted of a cornet duet by Bob Sabom and King Russell, assisted by Phyllis Huston at the piano.

Decorated gaily with fantastic paper hats and "sporting" sun-rub-ber squawkers of a million different tunes, the kiddies turned from ice cream and cake to a two-reel motion picture comedy, featuring Will Rogers and his kid mate in "Jubilo."

Next week's Rotary meeting will be held Wednesday, when the monthly joint meeting of local service clubs occurs, the clubs acting as hosts. Last month the Exchangites were hosts.

THREE MORE TILTS ON 'Y' CAGE CARD TONIGHT

Three more games are on tap in the Y. M. C. A. Basketball League, to be played tonight on the Barnum School floor. The first tilt will begin at 7:30 P. M.

The Pedowahin Club will play the Baptist Church team, Van's Pharmacy will meet Miller-Faberg, and Mulholland's will face the DeMolays.

METHODIST FORUM TO DISCUSS ADVERTISING

Marshall M. Morgan, 552 Madison street, will lead discussion on advertising at the meeting of the Methodist Men's Forum in the Community House at 10 A. M. Sunday. On the following Sunday, Forbes Haskell, state attorney, will address the Forum on "What to Expect From the State Legislature."

YOUTH HURT WHEN AUTO HITS TRUCK

Henry Whalen, 23 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whalen, 511 Greenwood avenue, was cut and bruised about the head, neck and face Tuesday morning when an automobile he was driving collided with a truck on Woodward avenue near Quarton road. Poor visibility, caused by sleet and snow was blamed for the accident.

Blackburn To Aid In Power Survey

L. A. Blackburn, 7 Old Salem court, with his wife and three children, will leave today, if weather permits, by motor to Richmond, Va., where he will remain until Sept. 1 to assist in an electrical power survey for the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Virginia.

Mr. Blackburn, an electrical engineer, will be associated with Allen L. Saville, Inc., in Richmond, a firm in which he was formerly a partner.

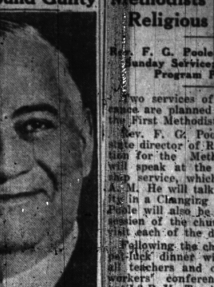
During the absence of the Blackburn family, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Parker of Lakeside drive will occupy their home.

BLOOMFIELD OFFICIALS SEEK OPERATING LOAN

Mayor Donald D. James and City Treasurer Robert C. Hargreaves of Bloomfield Hills were instructed in a resolution adopted by the City Commission Tuesday night to open negotiations for a loan not to exceed $10,000 in anticipation of the collection of 1933 city taxes. Deputy Clerk Norvil B. Farrell reported that cash on hand was sufficient to meet operating expenses only until Mar. 1.

The Eccentric maintains three telephone numbers: 11, 12, and 13. A courteous switchboard operator will answer your call, whether it be for the placing of a news item or an advertisement, or information on your printing needs.

Mayor Found Guilty



Charles H. Kline

Reversing a decision of the trial judge who set aside the jury's verdict convicting Mayor Charles H. Kline of Pittsburgh of malfeasance in office, the State Superior Court has upheld the mayor's guilt. Kline was found guilty on one of 45 counts in connection with the award of city contracts.

Methodists To Hear Religious Educator

Rev. F. G. Poole To Speak At Sunday Service; Father-Son Program Planned

Two services of special significance are planned for Sunday at First Methodist Church.

Rev. F. G. Poole of Detroit, state director of Religious Education for the Methodist Church, will speak at the morning worship service, which begins at 11 A. M. He will talk on "Christianity in a Changing World." Mr. Poole will also be present at the session of the church school, and visit each of the departments.

Following the church service, a pot-luck dinner will be held for all teachers and officers, with a workers' conference continuing until 1 P. M. Teachers and officers of other church schools are invited to attend.

The Methodist Men's Club, of which William DaLee is president, will sponsor a "Father and Son" service at the church at 7:30 P. M. The speaker will be Dennis Strong, metropolitan secretary of the Detroit Y. M. C. A., who will talk on "Refueling Your Mind." A men's chorus under the direction of Frederick A. Protheroe will sing. Fathers and sons of the congregation will sit together during the service.
