WIFE, SPURNED BY HUSBAND TAKES POISON

Woman Near Death After Attempted Reconciliation Fails

Mrs. Helen Zimmerman Bettyley, 29 years old, of 511 Woodland avenue, was still in a serious condition...

Mrs. Bettyley is the wife of Albert E. Bettyley, former vice-president of the Michigan Industrial Bank and now representative of the Michigan branch of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation...

Mrs. Bettyley and her husband have been separated for about a year.

According to a statement issued from the Wayne County prosecutor's office last Wednesday, Mrs. Bettyley admitted to investigator George Prime that she met her husband Tuesday night and attempted to effect a reconciliation.

When he refused, she said, she thought of the poison and drank it in a cup of coffee in a restaurant on Jefferson avenue, Detroit.

Then she walked to Receiving Hospital, told physicians what she had done, and collapsed.
