

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM THE HILLS

Mrs. Judd Is Speaker Kingswood Students To Give Program And Guest At Tea

More than 50 guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Angus D. McWhorter of Wintonston drive Monday afternoon to hear a discussion of county government organization presented by Mrs. Sigrid Judd of Grand Rapids, adviser to the legislative committee of the Michigan League of Women Voters.

The program and the tea which followed were sponsored by the Birmingham League of Women Voters of which Mrs. F. W. Hawley of Dorchester road is president. Among the many guests, including local members, were delegations from the Detroit and Mt. Pleasant Leagues.

Following Mrs. Judd's address, tea was served with Mrs. G. Hall Rose, chairman of the committee on efficiency in government of the Birmingham League, and Mrs. M. W. Dehran, pouring. For the occasion, the tea table was charmingly adorned with daffodils, sweet peas, and yellow carnations.

The same evening, Mrs. Judd will sponsor a group of informal dinner given by Mrs. Hawley at her home for members of the board of directors of the Birmingham League. The guests included Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. C. R. Paton, Mrs. Charles J. Shain, Mrs. Fred D. Strawn, Mrs. Paul Pentfield, Mrs. Frank F. Packard, Mrs. George Stearns Wiley, Mrs. M. C. Decker, Mrs. Katherine J. Willard, Mrs. Judd, who was the house guest, Mrs. Melby, returned to Grand Rapids Tuesday.

Proceeding from the tea, Mrs. Williams had as her lunch guests at her home on Yorkshire road, Mrs. Judd, Mrs. Melby, and Mrs. Hawley.

Subscribe to The Eclectic, $2 per year, two years for $3.50.

Baldwin Graduate Is Sorority Pledge

The auditorium of Kingswood School Cranbrook will be the scene of three classical presentations Saturday evening when members of the student body will appear in an Egyptian pantomime, a Greek procession and scenes from Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra."

The program will be presented as the culmination of the work of the school term in drama and the allied arts. Talking part in the Egyptian pantomime will be Doris Otter, Edith Hamilton, Marjorie Beaudette, Nancy Smith, Josephine Abrahamson, Elizabeth McDonald, Mary Jane Brown, Mary Ann Barnett, Virginia Hill, Clare Wiseman, Maxine Kelley, Cynthia Adams, and Barbara Shuell.

The cast of the Greek procession will include Margaret Bentley, Betty Bird, Mary Cooke, Jeanne Macdonald, Florence C. Schast, Doreen Saffin, Jeanne Wilson, Mary Helen Wendel, Ada Winslow, Ellen Ford, June Hesse, Nancy Stiles, Gail Wilson, Catherine Wilson, Gretchen Watson, Peggy Lighter, Katherine Andrus, and Sylvia Callender.

In the presentation of the scenes from "Antony and Cleopatra" will be Lola McDonald, Virginia Burr, Lois Wilcox, Eleanor Hendry, Peggy Anderson, Frances Ann Mierley, Margaret Symons, Annabel Avery, Mary MacVoy, Martha Werneken, Sue Wiseman and Ruth Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martz of Floyd street will entertain members of their bridge club at dinner Tuesday evening. In the club are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McCook, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Norton and Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Burkman.

Hills' Garden Group Parties By Many Birmingham Friends

Mrs. Henry Ford was the principal speaker at the annual luncheon of the Hills' Garden Club held at the Fox and Hounds Inn Monday. The program followed the annual meeting held at the club house.

Mrs. Ford discussed informally the annual meeting of the National Association held in Washington recently, which she attended in Detroit during the holidays.

Mrs. Ford is president of the Hills' Garden Club, which is a horticultural society, now organized in Detroit during the holidays.

Mrs. Donald Wilson was elected president to discuss the activities of the branch during the coming year. Mrs. Wilson is the new first vice-president and Mrs. Ralph H. Park is the second vice-president. Mrs. Wilson is also secretary and Mrs. Albert J. Stahlin, recording secretary. Mrs. Stahlin is also secretary and Mrs. Albert J. Stahlin, recording secretary. Mrs. Stahlin is also secretary and Mrs. Albert J. Stahlin, recording secretary.

Young Equestrians Vie For Trophies Of Open Ford Conducts First Meeting Here

A discussion of tentative plans occupied the 35 men and women who attended the first meeting of the open Ford sponsored by the Community Service Committee of the American Legion Auxiliary, held at the Community House Tuesday evening.

Forum members decided upon a discussion of Japan's policy for the next meeting to be held at the same place Tuesday at 7:30 P. M.

Mrs. Charles J. Shain is the forum leader. Mrs. Harold H. Gorton is chairman of the committee.

Alison, Betty Brown, Sally Hunt, Bud Herbst, Billy Tracy, Billy Kahn, Dick Shepherd, Anne Nichols, Elizabeth Nichols, Florence Smith, Mary St. Louis, Jack Lovett, Rosemary Wilson, Dickie Brandt, Eddie Lerchey, Freddie Johnson, Jimmie Herbst, and Bill Herben.

SHADOW-LAWN DINING ROOM
New 100 West Day Drive

AT YOUR BIRMINGHAM HEALY SHOP

Think What You Will Save On Your Hose Budget!

30 Pairs

is all you need pay for

All Silk Chiffons
Smoketone, Haze Beige, Brownwood shades, smart for wear with black, brown, or bright prints.

3 pairs for $1.00

More Gay Prints to cheer up your Winter Wardrobe

$ 5.75

New print frocks in gay, bright shades, smart, blue, grey or brown with lot of white. Springy patterns and slim-cut young lines in smart crinkle crepe.

D.J. Healy SHOPS
1716 WEST MAPLE

German Home Life To Be Subject Of Talk For Club

The third of a series of programs on Germany arranged by the world's work department of the Women's Literary Club will be the subject of an informal talk at the Public Library.

"German Home Life" will be the subject of the informal talk by Mrs. J. L. Walker of Arlington drive and her small daughter, Jean, will leave her for a talk, Fla. for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Don O. Scott of Pilgrim road will be hosts at an informal dinner Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Scott of Manor road.

Mrs. J. Arthur Evans of Devonshire road will entertain members of her sewing club at luncheon Friday. Miss Ennis Smith of Richmond, Va., is expected to arrive Wednesday to be the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

Miss Addie Sly of West Main and Wing Lake roads entertained a small group of friends at cards and tea Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Swanson of "Towershill," Lone Pine road, have invited a group of friends to dine with them before the plays to be given at Kingswood School Cranbrook Saturday evening, which they will later attend.

Mrs. H. F. Rhyal of Madison avenue invited members of her badminton group for luncheon and sewing Wednesday. Among the guests were Mrs. E. H. Tillotson, Mrs. W. E. Hartman, Mrs. Frank E. Kane, Mrs. Carleton Fox, Mrs. Karel M. Rickerson, Mrs. L. E. Colgrove, Mrs. Frank Cavan and Mrs. Jack Taylor.

Mrs. Ralph Dodge Smith, the former Miss Elizabeth Packard, who recently announced her marriage, is being entertained by her friends at several interesting affairs. Miss Helen Guckelberg of Edgewood boulevard will give a tea and miscellaneous shower in her home Friday. The guests will include Miss Virginia Packard, Miss Marian Fowler, Miss Mary Quinn, Miss Catherine Smith of Upper, Miss Shirley Brown, Miss Betty Erwin and Mrs. A. D. Rosen of Detroit. Mrs. Fowler of Harmon avenue was hostess at a lingerie shower complimenting Mrs. Smith and Miss Johnson, which was maintained at luncheon and three tables of bridge, recently. Mr. and Mrs. Smith now reside on Spinwood drive, Beverly Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Tillotson of Fairfax had an entertaining informal Saturday evening for members of Mr. Tillotson's badminton club and their wives. The guests included Ferd M. Bropek, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Storm, William Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Royal, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Colgrove and Mr. and Mrs. Clara H. O'Connell.

News of the Clubs

Mrs. William S. Toothaker of Merrill street will entertain members of the Haydon Club at luncheon and bridge at her home today.

Members of the Ladies Aid of the Embury M. E. Church will entertain members of the Haydon Club at luncheon and bridge at her home today.

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association of Pierce School gave a party to benefit the school which was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Thornberry of Chapin avenue, Monday, Friday afternoon.

Members of the Delphin Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. M. C. Hill of Yorkshire road.

Birmingham Chapter, O. E. S., held a memorial service at the Magnific Temple, Wednesday evening.

The Suzanne Westley Group of the Methodist Episcopal Church, members of the Women's T. L. Late of Westchester.

The Philemon Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. James Terry of North Woodward avenue.

BERYLL HAYNES TEACHER OF PIANO

Announces a reduction of rates for lessons beginning with the term—Monday, January 30th, 1933. The former 20 minute lessons at $2.00, now $1.00. TELEPHONE 1076

THE PARISIAN BOOTERY

WILLIAM DEFEZZA, Proprietor
146 W. Maple Ave. Phone 2386

NOW IN BIRMINGHAM WITH SAME HIGH QUALITY WORKMANSHIP GREATLY REDUCED PRICES We call for—and deliver your work

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mrs. F. H. McKinney of Purcell road entertained four guests at dinner Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Niedenfuhr of Parkville drive were hosts at a "gentleman's" dinner at the home Friday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Sargent, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stephens of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gilam, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyes and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Wink.

Miss Jessie Prentice of Ansted was hostess at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. J. L. Thornberry of Chapin avenue, Sunday. Miss Prentice returned to Ypsilanti Normal College, where she is a student.

A bridge luncheon, planned as a surprise in honor of her birthday, was given for Mrs. L. H. Wilson of West Maple avenue at her home Tuesday by a group of friends led by her sister, Mrs. L. C. Serris of Detroit. Among the guests were Mrs. Frank Spahr, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Mrs. Roy Erb and Mrs. Frank Coe of Birmingham. Party from Detroit, Mrs. A. J. Menery, Mrs. Elwood Lynd, Mrs. John Neccles and Mrs. Abner.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kahn of Franklin Village will entertain informally for Mr. and Mrs. George Scrymgeour of Detroit at their home Friday evening. Mr. Scrymgeour, who spent three and one-half years in Russia, will discuss his experiences. The guests will include members of the class in International Relations conducted by Mrs. Charles E. Shain and Mrs. Kahn will have Mr. and Mrs. Scrymgeour as their dinner guests.

QUALITY SERVICE

Birmingham Market

FRANK SMITH, MGR.
154 WEST MAPLE

FREE FREE FREE
With this Ad, and a 79c Meat Purchase 1 PACKAGE OF SWIFT'S BACON

Swift's Premium or Berkshire

Smoked Ham Whole or Sliced 12c

POT ROAST Choice - Tender lb. 12 1/2c

PRIME RIB BEEF Boned and Rolled lb. 19c

JUICY-TENDER Steaks Sirloin or Round lb. 17c

Brookfield Breakfast SAUSAGE lb. 18c

LEG O' LAMB Genuine Spring lb. 17c

LOINS OF PORK Rib-end lb. 7 1/2c

Beef or Pork SAUSAGE Fresh Ground 3 lbs. for 25c

Swift's BACON Sliced 2 lbs. 25c

Fresh Creamery BUTTER Country Roll lb. 18c

PURE LARD In Cartons lb. 5c

Registered Nurse by the hour, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Miss John Ott of Oakland avenue returned Saturday from Davison, Mich., where she had spent the last several days and so on in law. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lowes for several weeks.

QUEEN SHOP

SPECIAL HALF SOLES and Rubber Heels 85c

Satisfaction Guaranteed THEATER BLDG. Open Evenings

Mamie J. Newell Teacher of Piano

For Appointment Phone 137 987 Ridgeland Ave.

Graduate NURSE

23 years' experience. Hospital 9 to 5 daily. Home 5 to 8 daily. In all cases when an hour or less is all that is needed. No charge for patients. Nurse. New Haven, 1340 Smith Avenue, New Haven, Conn.