

POLICE ARREST 75 IN MONTH

Two Felonies Included In List; Fines Total $126

A total of 75 persons were arrested in Birmingham during December, according to the monthly report of the Birmingham police department, issued today by Police Chief M. Stoddard. Police cases filed collected at the violation bureau amounted to $126. The felonies included an auto theft and an alleged forgery. All the girls of the arrests for misdeemeanors were on traffic tickets. There were 13 for speeding, 11 for carelessness and 11 for driving without license. The other 47 misdemeanors included 30 for failure to obey traffic signs, three on traffic tickets for failure to park properly and three for parking beside a curb and 11 for other minor violations.

Camera Glimpses of "Babe" in Chicago

That speeding, dashing queen of the Olympic games, Mildred "Babe" Dandridge, having given up her amateur status after the American Athletic Union reinstated her following their charges of professionalism, is now preparing to make her debut as a paid performer. At the left, the "Babe" is shown working out with Sven Mathews, an instructor at the Illinois Athletic club. In the center she is resting between exercises with her sister, Mrs. Esther Elam, of Houston, Tex. At the right, she says her first showman as a stage performer, and the girls' championship was held at Kingsford School. Carl R.
