Giraffe-Neck Women Feature Circus Soon

Many residents of Birmingham and vicinity plan to attend the annual exhibition of Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey's Combined Shows in Detroit Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

A feature of this year's circus is the exhibition of the Royal Padaung giraffe-necked women from Burma. This group, representatives of a ruling race in the East, receives its characteristic deformity of the neck from the superimposition, from birth to maturity, of a number of soldered copper rings on the neck. These rings elongate the neck until the women become the nearest human approach to a giraffe. They are spoken of by ethnologists as a proud, aloof race, many of extreme beauty despite the peculiar neck deformity which is the sign of their rulers' blood.

More than 1,600 performers, 50 elephants, 1,000 menagerie animals and 700 horses take part in the numerous acts of the circus. They will arrive in Detroit Sunday morning, in four long trains of 100 double-length cars especially built for the circus.

Pontiac Sales Head Sees July Sales Rise

A rush of June sales of Pontiac automobiles, reaching unusually high proportions, is announced by R. K. White, of Lake Park Drive, sales manager for the firm.

"There has been a steadily rising tide of Pontiac buying since the New York show," says Mr. White. "There was a definite culmination of this in the third 10-day period in June, which was well above the similar period in recent experience. The June sales curve rose steadily from the first. Instead of being less than May, June showed a gain of more than a hundred cars. It is probable, from the way orders continue to come in, that our July operation will come close to that of June."

ANYONE who has ever tasted electric cooking knows the tempting flavor conserved in foods, the melting tenderness of meats and vegetables cooked in their own juices, the fluffy lightness of fine-grained cakes and flaky pastry. Cooking on an electric range is different from any other kind. And the secret of its deliciousness is SEALED-IN FLAVOR. The principle of the Dutch oven and the pressure cooker—cooking foods with little water—is found too in the electric range. Nourishing elements and important food values are retained, instead of being lost in steam. A $10 initial payment and small monthly payments places an Electrochef in your kitchen, installed and ready to cook.

Only a STRAIGHT EIGHT can give Straight Eight PERFORMANCE!

PONTIAC—the Economy Straight Eight—is one of the outstanding successes of the year. It is showing the way to big-car comfort and Straight Eight performance at a low price and with operating economy.

Pontiac is the Economy Straight Eight. Ask any Pontiac owner—and you'll find it is giving 15 miles or more to the gallon—and gives that not only for a few thousands of miles, but for many thousands after you'd expect it to show signs of wear. Only a Straight Eight can give Straight Eight performance.

One of Pontiac's outstanding features is Fisher Controlled Ventilation. Many say no car can be considered modern without it.

Try a demonstration. Let Pontiac itself convince you that it has no equal at or near its price.
