FRANKLIN

The Rev. Robert Richards, pastor of the Franklin Methodist Episcopal Church, has called a meeting of the church board for tonight.

The annual election of officers of the Ladies Aid Society of the Franklin Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at a postponed meeting July 27 at the home of Mrs. Alfred Carria. Other business will include the reading of yearly reports. Refreshments will be served in the late afternoon.

Miss Margaret Roediger, of Wayne, Mich., is the guest this week of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roediger.

Considerable interest has been shown by members of the Franklin M. E. Church Sunday School in a contest being sponsored by the rectors of the school. Points in the contest are based on attendance, bringing parents and friends to Sunday School, and on answers to weekly questions prepared by Sunday School instructors.

Two groups have been organized, the Golden Eagles under the direction of Miss Margaret Smith, and the Blue Birds, whose leader is Robert Kreger. The contest will terminate in a picnic and field day, the date of which has not been decided.

Mrs. Susan Raynor has had as her guest during the past week her cousin, Mrs. Annie Croft, formerly of Southfield and now a resident of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hays, of Bay City, formerly residents of Franklin, called on friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Bishop, of Detroit, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Facer last week. Mrs. A. B. Redfield arrived Saturday from New York City to spend a few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Grigg.
