AUTO PROMOTES COMFORT IN DRESS

The automobile has done more to promote comfort in dress than any other invention, declares Lucien Leleng, Paris couturier. The clothes women wear when automobiling are not, however, designed especially for that sport. Women like to do their driving in whatever ensemble they may be wearing at the time. Therefore, trailing, floating or vague effects in clothes have been eliminated. From the daytime maid and elegant to evening, a "Leisure" type which is adapted to automobiling is sketched in Paris.

A party Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Halman of Gray Haven. After the swim, Mr. and Mrs. Halman took their guests to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for dinner and dancing.

In a group who dined and danced at the Birmingham Golf Club Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wolf, Henry McCurry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Brigham, Mrs. F. Brigham of Newton Center, Mass., Mrs. Burt Lucy of Dayton, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tyler of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wolf of East Lincoln avenue were hosts at an informal bridge and buffet supper at their home Monday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Brigham, Mrs. Burt Lucy and Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Hawley.

A family party Friday in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Thelma F. MacManus of "Countrycroft," Bloomfield Hills, was the occasion for the visit of her daughter, Mrs. William Francis Fox, Jr., of Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. Fox, who was accompanied by her small son, Peter, is enjoying a brief visit at the home of her parents. Other relatives from out-of-town who joined the family in honor of this event were Mrs. MacManus' brother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Merritt of Lima, O., with their daughter, Lenore, who returned Tuesday.

Mrs. Herbert A. Fisher of Franklin Village has as her house guest, Mrs. Norman Mellon of Scarsdale, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were hosts at an informal dinner Tuesday evening in honor of their guest.
