

St. Dunstan's Guild To Give Its First Public Performance

The Great Center at Cranbrook, Michigan, will provide an appropriate setting for the picturesque play and musical "The King and the Commoners" by Louis Saunders, to be presented Friday evening at 8:30 P. M. by the members of St. Dunstan's Guild.

The program will mark the first public performance of the Guild, which was organized two years ago by a group interested in dramatic expression.

Members of the Guild, which is under the patron saint of the city, make their own costumes and properties and on occasion write their own plays, as they did for a recent performance.

Taking part in the program will be a group of principal characters, a financing group and a chorus, all of whom are assisting in the production. Those having major roles include Mrs. D. Richards, Mrs. F. Farrington, Dr. J. B. Hasberger, Verne J. Cunningham and George McDonald.

In support of roles and in the music group will be Mrs. A. M. Feltz, Mrs. E. C. Pew, Mrs. Eliza Bennett, Mrs. Sam M. Garber, Mrs. Kelleet, Mrs. Adele Stirrett, Miss Maureen Montgomery, Mrs. John Cunningham, Miss Margaret Rainey, Mrs. Carl W. Hirschberger, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Fredrick E. Booth, Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson, F. C. New, Mr. Swanson, Mrs. Victor H. Cahalane, Sheldon Noble and Mrs. A. M. Gault.

Mrs. Maurice W. Cochran is directing the performance, assisted by John Wilson, with Mrs. Robert F. Grindley in charge of the dancing groups. Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock is production manager, Mrs. C. Theon Van Dusen is in charge of costumes, Mrs. Fred M. Brock is chairman of the committee on refreshments, and Mrs. Noble is in charge of the disposal of flowers.

At the annual meeting of the Guild held last week, a new board of directors was elected from which new officers will be chosen. Serving on this board will be H. Ledward Towle, Mrs. H. Gray Murray, F. C. New, A. M. Gault and Mrs. Cochran.

Retiring from office at the close of this year are Harry Booth, president; Miss Jessie Waters, secretary; and Hugh W. Hitchcock, treasurer. Mrs. Campbell Harvey served as chairman of the play-reading committee.

First June Bride To Wear Nuptial Vows On Saturday

First of the June brides to wear the nuptial vows will be Miss Blanche Bell, daughter of William Bell, of 1111 1/2 E. 12th St., whose marriage to Carl Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sharp of Ecorse, will be celebrated on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her father.

Miss Irvine Acheson of St. Paul, Minn., United Presbyterian church will perform the ceremony at the home of about 30 guests. Miss Bell will be attended by Miss Alta Potts, and Curtis Sharp, brother-in-law. The wedding breakfast will follow at 12 o'clock.

A number of social affairs are planned in honor of the bride-elect. A personal shower given by Miss Potts at her home on Wednesday afternoon, a luncheon given by Mrs. M. Cooper of Wayne, Mich., on Saturday, and a dance and country shower the evening of which Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller of Ecorse, Mich., will be the hosts. Mrs. Frank Housh of Ecorse also entertained at a luncheon on Saturday morning.

Following the ceremony Saturday afternoon they will spend the honeymoon at their home.

Bride-Elect Chooses Date For Home Nuptials

Another bride of June this year will be Miss Grace Adelaide Wiley, daughter of Mrs. Ada Wiley of Southfield avenue, whose marriage to Charles LeClair Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor of Lake City, will be an event of June 9.

The ceremony will be performed at 3 o'clock at the bride's mother's at 3 o'clock, by the Rev. Russell D. Hopkins of the First Methodist Church. Miss Wiley will be attended by Mrs. George Hale as maid of honor, and Mr. Hale will assist Mr. Taylor as best man.

In honor of her approaching marriage, Miss Wiley has been entertained at several interesting affairs. Recently she was the honoree at a breakfast and miscellaneous shower given by Miss Frances Belfour, Miss Claudine Simpson and Mrs. Manley R. Bailey, at the Aldor Apartments in Royal Oak.

Thursday evening, she was again honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. John Langstrom, Mrs. George Hale and Miss Ruth Somers, at the home of Mrs. George Steelman on River-ock road.

Mrs. Edith Hobbs of Quorton road returned Sunday after a visit of 10 days at Dalby Lake, where she was the guest of Mrs. Edith Bookham and her brother, Ray Bookham.

A group of friends and relatives gathered at Holy Name Chapel Sunday afternoon to attend the christening of Nancy Jane Bingham, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bingham of Bingham road. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Tremblay, grandparents, acted as godfather and godmother. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Tremblay were hosts at a dinner in honor of the event at the home on Covington drive in Palmer Woods.

Lavender and white lilacs, with green foliage, gracefully arranged in the parlors of St. James' Church, formed a spring-like background when members of the Junior and senior classes of the church school were guests at a tea dance Saturday afternoon. Miss Mary Latham was in charge of arrangements, and assisting her were Miss Betty Brede, John Palmer, Fred Whitlesey, Marguerite Smith, Adele Cole, Winstan Cox, Jack Whitlesey, Betty Uiter and Jane Fowler.
