A Sham Of A Man

Not long ago the lights of pride conceit, wealth, authority, flared bright from the countenance of Joseph W. Harriman, 68-year-old former head of the Harriman National Bank & Trust Cd., in New York City. That was before he was indicted by the Norl-City. That was before he was indicted by the federal government for alleged falsifying of bank life records, the trial of which is now going on. Since day his indictment, you may recall, he vanished from a ple happital, front which he had fled and then tried to ecominit suicide. This fellow, once a powerful figure may be suicide. This fellow, once a powerful figure may himself a coward, when brought into the outer fringes, grand the Realinfort Justice.
