Do You Know? SANDERS TRI-CLEANING MAKES CLOTHES LAST LONGER... In ordinary cleaning, a great deal of abrasion, friction and heat are required to clean clothes. This results in their wear. Sanders Tri-Cleaning eliminates all this friction by means of a special process. The heat is controlled for drying because of its volatility. It leaves no oily film on garments. A special fast process that cleans stained by Stains and fast foot-foot-fer of last year's clothing.

Enters Employee Of Oil Company

JAMES ASWELL... By Central Press... NEW YORK—Madhattan Grab Bag: You forget, after awhile, to be ashamed of absorption in trivialities here. The day sparkles with an endless succession of minute emotions, so that when something important comes along you scarcely realize it.

Mr. Anderson, who was graduated from the school of Business Administration of Oberlin College, Oberlin, O., will become an employee with the Torrence Oil Company here beginning Saturday, July 1. It was announced yesterday by Joseph E. Torrence, president of the company.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE... Now that school is out and boys and girls have all day to play in the sun and get up big appetites, it is time for mother to plan ways to appease them. Simple, wholesome meals can be easily and quickly prepared. Let shelling peas, snapping beans, hulling strawberries or pitting cherries be the children's "homework."

Many vegetables are now home-grown, including spinach, peas, beans, carrots and cabbage. Garden lettuce is tender, and homegrown berries are fragrant, firm and sweet.

In addition to fruits, there are many delicious and healthful desserts which can be quickly prepared, including gelatin, cornstarch and tapioca puddings and egg custards.

Try these timely menus: Low Cost Dinner: Cold Cuts, Potato Salad, Bread and Butter, Chocolate Pudding, Top Milk, Coffee or Tea.

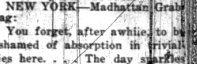

Whipped Cherry Jelly with Fresh Cherries, Very Special Dinner: Cold Cuts, Tomato Soup, Medium Cost Dinner: Roast Stuffed Shoulder of Veal or Pan-Browned Potatoes, Green Beans, Quince Jelly.

Youthful Ambition: Father (pausing between sobs)—"Son, I'm speaking you because I love you." Son (pausing between sobs)—"Father, I'd like to be big enough to return your love."

That Started It: Mrs. Grabber (angrily)—"I hope to be able to dance on your grave some day." Mr. Grabber—"But honey, I'm going to be buried at sea."

STARS OF RADIOLAND... Alice Davenport... When production men in one of the large New York broadcasting studios desire a particularly emotional actress for a dramatic "chick," they call on Alice Davenport, a platinum blonde. Alice submerges herself completely in her character, when she is before the microphone.

over an old fear—going to sleep with a burning cigarette and setting the house on fire. The man's apprehensions were evoked by news that Walcott Gibb, humorist for the past week, had done exactly that and entered a hospital for his health. But while it seems likely that Gibb's singing is all a hoax, it is noted in many moon.

Parties in a garban the other night, that J. P. Morgan is just 20 years top found the escape the unpleasantness he is now encountering. John D. Rockefeller, Sr., once a feature some years in the minds of an older generation's school children, outlived the legend of his haughtiness to become a gentle and slightly unattractive symbol of wealth, shiny new dime and fancy size on the golf links. I wonder if they'd have bothered Morgan at 90-odd.

QUICK CHANGE... Shuffling some letters from an inside pocket I discover an item I should have put down when men-bering the Micky House, newest party among the night clubs. The matter of ceremonies there is a seek young man named Paul Verdi. He is tried for several seasons to operate under his real name Paul Capone, but patrons of restaurants where he worked asked the inevitable question. Was he "Paul" brother? Now with the moon de nut, or what have you, Verdi asks him whether he is related to Giuseppe Verdi, the operatic composer. "I didn't. Nomination for the most badly aimed direct mail advertisement of the year—the swanky poster stuck upon my door in a monogrammed envelope. 'You can get joy four smart and glamorous months, among the people you know, in Southampton for only $12,000 rental in this fine home.' I wouldn't enjoy a minute, after that rental had been paid."

SAILING MADNESS... Sally Eilers, sailing recently from here for Europe, pulled one that should give competition to all the absent-minded professors of the fancy bodies. She accidentally grasped a slip of paper, stuck it in her purse, and handed her passport to the father. I didn't discover the slip until she was at sea.

Obituary... GRACE M. HERRICK... Serviced with head Wednesday for Miss Grace M. Herrick, 78 years old, who died Monday morning at the Oakland County Infirmary where she had been a patient since March, 1931. Born on the old Torrey farm on West Maple road in Bloomfield Township, Miss Herrick had lived nearly all her life in Birmingham. The services were held from the S. O. Willie Bell Home for Funerals, with burial in Greenwood Cemetery. Rev. W. Clark Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated. Frans Hals, Dutch portrait and genre painter, was one of the greatest painters of all times.

A Foolish Question... Man at the gate: Is your mother home? Little boy: Say, you don't suppose I'm carrying this letter because the grass is long do you?

Not Backward... "I heard this house goes back to the Tudors." "Not a bit. I paid for it, and now it remains."—London An- swers.
