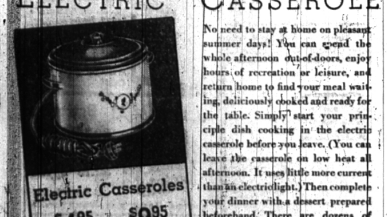
Your SUMMER DINNER

COOKS WHILE YOU'RE OUT . . .
the principle dish is prepared in an
ELECTRIC CASSEROLE



No need to stay at home on pleasant summer days! You can spend the whole afternoon out-of-doors, enjoy hours of recreation or leisure, and return home to find your meal waiting, deliciously cooked and ready for the table. Simply start your principle dish cooking in the electric casserole before you leave. (You can leave the casserole on low heat all afternoon. It uses little more current than an electric light.) Then complete your dinner with a dessert prepared beforehand. There are dozens of tempting casserole recipes from which to choose.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Girls are as modest as ever, but they are bolder about it.

Life's Little Laughs

A Miracle in Pies

Little Dorothy was watching mother take a pie from the oven. As the steam escaped thru the openings in the top the crust slightly raised up. Dorothy suddenly exclaimed, "Look mother, the pie is breathing."

Natural Conclusion

"Madam, I represent the Society for the Suppression of Profanity. It is our object to take the strong language right out of your life, and we—"

"Come here, father. Here's a man that wants to buy our old car."

Fifty-Fifty

First Card Player—"We'll better stop the game now; we're even."

Second Card Player—"Even? How do you make that out?"

First Player—"Why, you have all my money a little while ago and now I've got yours."

Fifty-Fifty

Bank Teller—"So you wish to open a joint account with your husband? A checking account, I suppose?"

Mrs. Brown—"A checking account for me, yes, and just a deposit account for my husband."

Some Cars Are Like That

The tourist rushed into the country store. "I want a quart of oil, some gas, a couple of spark plugs, a timer, a five-gallon kerosene can and four pie plates."

"All right," replied the storekeeping clerk, "and you can assemble her in the back room if you want to."

Fine Distinction

Mrs. A—"Was your husband pickled when he came home last night?"

Mrs. B—"No, just plain stewed."
