Pontiac Players To Present Ibsen Play

"Hedda Gabler" by Henrik Ibsen, the third production of the Pontiac Civic Players this season, will be given in the auditorium of the Pontiac High School, Wednesday and Friday evenings, Mar. 8 and 10.

The Pontiac Civic Players is an amateur group which has been in existence for several years, and which now includes 50 members. The object of the organization is to give those interested in the theater an opportunity for self-expression, and to stimulate public interest in the drama.

Membership in the group is not limited to Pontiac residents.

A Chinese tea will be a novel feature of the meeting of the Women's Society of the Methodist Church at the church Wednesday. Under auspices of the missionary department, Mrs. E. Kyle Simpson of Pontiac, who spent several years in the Orient, will speak on "Home Life in China." Mrs. Clarence Davey and Mrs. G. W. Mack will act as hostesses.

Secrets Of Make-up To Be Revealed To Women's Group

When the Birmingham group of the Home Economics Extension Course in sewing meets next week, it will be to hear talks on the art of personal grooming for the well-dressed woman, to be given by Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens of Smith avenue and Mrs. Charles Staples of Yosemite drive.

Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Staples, as leaders of the local group, received instruction on this subject at a recent meeting of leaders at Pontiac, which they in turn will present to their own group.

Among the subjects to be discussed will be the care of the hair, dressing it to suit the type of the individual, the care of the complexion and the wise choice of make-up, and the art of manicuring.

The meeting of the Birmingham group, which was to have been held Friday, has been postponed until the early part of next week, Mrs. Stevens announced.

Moore Bill Is Made Subject Of Address

State Senator A. L. Moore of Pontiac was the principal speaker at an open meeting at the Community House Saturday afternoon sponsored by the legislative committee of the Birmingham League of Women Voters. Senator Moore discussed current bills before the present Legislature, including his own proposal for refunding delinquent taxes on which he spoke at length.

Prior to the meeting, Senator and Mrs. Moore and their daughter, Miss Juliette, were honor guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. C. R. Paton of Drury lane, chairman of the legislative committee.

Other guests at the luncheon were Mrs. G. Hall Roosevelt, Mrs. Angus D. McLay, Mrs. Frank S. Packard, Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, and Mrs. Frank W. Hawley.

"Christ Jesus" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 5.
Among the Bible citations was this passage (John 1:14): "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."
Corresponding passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 340): "Divine Truth must be known before the Science of being can be demonstrated. Hence its embodiment in Incarnate Jesus,—that life-link of connection through which the captive hears the unreal, Soul rebukes sense, and Truth destroys error."
