HYPOCRISY OF MAN ASSAILED God, Spurned in Time of Plenty, Owe Us Nothing, Wright Says Because he spurned God in times of prosperity, man cannot rightfully expect to be extricated from his difficulties by divine aid in times of economic and social stress like the present, declared W. Clarence Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in his sermon Sunday morning.

Something Is Happening To The Shirts of America White collar-traced shirts still occupy center of the stage. One convincing proof of that is the mounting popularity of the Arrow TRUMP, most famous of all shirts. But there's a growing feeling that variety is the spice of life as well as of food. So colored and patterned shirts are in rapidly increasing evidence in the most carefully selected wardrobe. It's a heralding trend, and it has encouraged Arrow to go further than we, or anyone else, have ever gone in the creation of smart patterned shirts.
