Birmingham Musicians To Take Part In State Convention

Birmingham will be represented on the program of the 17th annual state meeting of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, which is convened in Flint, April 5-8, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles A. Grew of that city.

The club presidents' breakfast, which will be the opening event Thursday morning, Mrs. Norman B. W. Yorkshire road, will lead an open forum for the discussion of musical subjects.

The Thursday Musicale Chorus will take part in the program to be presented Friday evening at a concert concert under the direction of Mrs. J. Fenton of Grand Rapids, state choral chairman, assisted by Mrs. Emily Hixson of Flint.

The program will include selections by the Thursday Musicale Chorus, the MacFarland Male Chorus of Pontiac, the Monday Musicale Chorus of Mt. Clemens, the Dixie A Cappella Chorus, the Choral Club of student nurses from Concord Hall, Ann Arbor, and several others.

When the orchestral program is presented Friday afternoon, the Detroit College-Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Maurice E. Fosenkemper of Birmingham, will play the accompaniment of the "Blue Concerto" composed by G. Minor for violin, with Mrs. Matter Adams as the soloist.

Mrs. W. S. Toothaker of Merrill street was hostess at an informal dinner bridge Friday. Her guests included Mrs. H. H. Wellman, Mrs. Caroline Updegraff, Mrs. Della Waterbury, Mrs. E. M. S. Rose, Mrs. John E. Martz, Mrs. John S. Black, and Mrs. Henry...

Kettles Sing Cozily At 'Depression' Tea

"The old kitchen kettle" played an important role at a "depression" tea given by members of the Birmingham League of Women Voters at the Community House Monday afternoon.

In keeping with the times, the tea table was spread with a cover of "imitation" lace, cut from discarded newspapers. In the center of the table a practical decoration composed of a basket of carrots, cauliflower, radishes and other vegetables, added a colorful note.

In place of silver or delicate china teapots, Mrs. Fred D. Parrar and Mrs. G. R. Patton poured from tin kettles. Another feature of the tea was the exchange of "white elephants." Each center included an article no longer of use to her and traded with another member for an article more suited to her needs.

The tea followed a meeting of the League at which Mrs. J. Shain spoke on organizing women's units on the plan proposed at the Conference of the League of Women Voters, which she attended as a delegate from Michigan and which was held in Washington, D. C., in January.

Birmingham Names Associated With Junior Play

Four names familiar to Birmingham are prominently in the January Junior Play, presented as an annual event by the girls of the junior class of the University of Michigan in the 1935 version of which opened in Ann Arbor Wednesday, to continue through Saturday.

The chairman of the production is Miss Frances Manchester, whose home was formerly in Birmingham. Maxwell Gall's procreta is Miss Frances Manchester, whose home was formerly in Birmingham. Maxwell Gall's procreta is Miss Frances Manchester, whose home was formerly in Birmingham.
