SPELLING CHAMPS PICKED IN GRADES

14 Birmingham Students Advance To School Contests In Metropolitan Bee

Fourteen students in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of Birmingham schools won Webster's Collegiate Dictionaries as their rewards for defeating their classmates in spelling contests in their respective grades Friday. The contests which are sponsored annually by the Detroit News as a part of the Detroit Metropolitan Spelling Bee, were held to determine the grade champion as well as a team of 14 students from each of the contesting grades. They will compete for the championships of their respective schools on Mar. 31.

A complete list of the grade winners in each Birmingham school, together with the word which brought victory to the winner, follows:

Baldwin—7th grade, Bruce Corson; 8th grade, Ellen Hogan, perpendicular.

Barnum — 5th grade, Harold Wassberg, discount; 6th grade, Phyllis Walls, volume; 7th grade, Mary Ryden, meridian; 8th grade, Murrel Dalley, divisible.

Pierce—5th grade, Jack Rigden, elevator; 6th grade, Frances Morrison, prior.

Quarton—5th grade, Peter Halgren, knuckles; 6th grade, Nell Wasey, jewelry.

Adams—5th grade, Jean Gilbert, social; 6th grade, Billy Cobb, apothecary; 7th grade, Carleton Thompson, luscious; 8th grade, Ann Caldwell, persistent.

Ellen Hogan, last year's district champion, has gotten off to a good start by winning her grade contest. She, Bruce Corson and Nell Wasey were the only three students to repeat last year's wins this year in grade bees.

Two Soloists To Assist At Band, Orchestra Concert

The second in a series of four monthly Sunday afternoon concerts by the Baldwin High School band and orchestra will be given in the High School Auditorium at 4 P. M. Sunday.

A. W. Bernd, director, has announced the following program for the orchestra: "Black Rose Overture," by Brockton; Franz Schubert's popular "Moment Musicale," and a group of American folk songs arranged by Hildreth.

The band will play Suppe's "Light Cavalry"; "Turkish March," by Beethoven, and "Londonerry Air" from "Derry County," by Percy Grainger.

There will also be two soloists, one from the band and one from the orchestra. Francis Allen, violinist, will play "Meditation" from "Thais," by Massenet, and William Gail, baritonist in the band, will play "Grand Russian Fantasia," by Levy.

The public is invited to the concert, for which there is no admission charge.

Track Candidates To Be Given Tests

Coach Will Put Maples Through Paces In All Events Today

Coach Franklyn Whitney, Baldwin High School's track coach, has set this afternoon as the date when he will find out just what each candidate can do. Whitney, who has been holding practice sessions in the Baldwin gym for the past several weeks, will test each tryout in every event.

All of last year's available lettermen have turned out and several good possibilities have appeared in new candidates.

Whitney plans to rest the team during the spring recess and start out-of-doors workouts after the vacation.

The first Maple meet is scheduled for April 2 at Dearborn.

Adams Honor Roll Cites 47 Students

Washington Trip Deferred To June

Baldwin Group Will Visit Capital Then If Budget Release Funds

The Baldwin High School Washington Group has definitely postponed its spring trip to the nation's capital until next June, it was announced Monday by Mr. Toothacker adviser. The trip will be taken at that time, he said, thanks in which the group's money is on deposit, upon for a substantial withdrawal.

Several members of the group have stated a preference for going to the World's Fair at Chicago instead of to Washington, but the money the group has saved will be used for a trip to the capital, Mr. Toothacker said.

He added, however, that if more than 20 students wish to make a second trip, it may be taken by the group's return from Washington.

Hopes For Baldwin Net Team Revived

Although it was announced a week by Melvin Hart, principal of Baldwin High School, that there would be no tennis team representing Baldwin this spring, a possibility was seen early this week that a court team may yet be formed.

The chief reason for banning the abolishment of the sport this spring was the fact that no suitable school courts were available. A number of boys were anxious of forming a team that Mr. Hart has given them permission to represent the school in trying to make arrangements with the Birmingham Tennis Club for the use of its courts.

"If the boys are able to secure the use of the Tennis Club's courts, I believe we should be able to organize a team," Mr. Hart said. He added that if a team is formed, its schedule will be short, probably including only three or four matches.

Arrests Here Drop To 41 In February

Crime Hits Lowest Point For Any Month In Present Years Report Shows

Arrests made by Birmingham police in February dropped to 41, the smallest number in any month in recent years. Fines collected at the traffic violations bureau totalled only $105.

There were four arrests for felonies, according to the monthly report of Miss Cassie Stoddard, police clerk. Three included one for simple larceny and one for stealing a truck.

Arrests, totalling 37, for misdemeanors, included 30 for speeding, two for drunk driving, one for being drunk, one for reckless driving, one on a traffic warrant, and one on a warrant for another jurisdiction.

There were six automobile accidents in the city during the month, and four persons were injured. Police answered 75 calls and investigated 40 complaints.

Three cases of breaking and entering were reported, two of which were proved to be unfounded. One auto theft was cleared by an arrest. One case of larceny was reported, and 12 of simple larceny. Of the latter, two were cleared by arrest and the goods stolen in another were recovered.
