in
HOLEPROOF HOSIERY
"SUN-UP", "SUN-DOWN",
"IN-BETWEEN"

"Sun-up" is an "odds on" favorite color for all bright daytime events. It's a rich bronze khaki tone. "Sun-down" is the "one best bet" for all evening clothes... especially white and pastels. It's a delicate complexion tint. And "In-between" is a "way out in front" neutral shade that will win with all town and street costumes.

Ariel Paintings on Exhibit
The famous painting "Ariel" by the French artist Erte will be shown in one of our Westwood Avenue windows in connection with our Holeproof Hosiery display for the next two weeks.

This painting typifies the spirit and rest of springtime in the French manner of Erte.
Erte is acknowledged as one of the foremost theatrical scenic artists in the world. For years he did most of the scenic effects for the stage extravaganza of Ethelbert Ziegfeld. More recently he has been identified with the creations of stage backdrops for Earl Carroll's Vanities. Erte now creates many of the designs and illustrations for Harper's Bazaar.
