FOR Mother's DAY

A Tribute to the Friend Who Never Fails Us...

WE ARE apt to take Mother pretty much for granted, all through the year. She is always there to love us and to serve us. All her tender helpfulness comes so sweetly, so naturally that we forget that it is a gift without price—a gift impossible to replace. But there is one day to do her honor—to attest in some slight measure our real, our deep and loving gratitude.

HOLEPROOF HOSIERY

FOR EVERY MOTHER!

Remember your mother with something personal on this day of days. A gift box of Holeproof Hosiery, for instance, containing the kind of stockings the likes. Something conservative like "Foggy" and "Clear" in a medium weight if she's so inclined; something dashing like "Sun-up" and "Sun-down" in a cobweb sheerness if she's young and fashion conscious. Whatever her tastes, you'll find just what suits her best... in Holeproof.

Wedding Plans Told By Southfield Girl

Among the first of the June brides this year will be Miss Blanche Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell of Eleven Mile road, whose betrothal to Ray Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sharp of Ecree, will be an event of Saturday, June 17.

The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents at 10 A. M. in the presence of the immediate family. The Rev. S. Irvine Adams of the Southfield United Presbyterian Church will read the service. Miss Alta Paria will attend Miss Bell as bridesmaid and Curtis Sharp will assist her brother as best man. Following the ceremony, the bridal couple will leave for Chicago for a brief wedding tour. They will make their home in Ecree.

Among the recent social events given in honor of the bride-elect were a miscellaneous shower at which Mrs. C. J. Sharp was hostess, a miscellaneous shower and tea given jointly by Mrs. Oscar Miller and Mrs. John Brooks of Southfield, and a Saturday evening supper party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Thomas of Dorchester road.

Birmingham Man Is Married In Detroit

Of interest to Birmingham friends will be the announcement of the marriage of Clayton Hill of Westchesterway to Lois L. Thery of Detroit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Thery of Tiffin, O., which occurred in Detroit Saturday.

The ceremony was performed in the Channing Building at 11 o'clock by the Rev. Mrs. John M. Doyle in the presence of the immediate family. Mr. Hill was attended by David Wickman and Eugene Thery, brother of the bride. The Misses Mildred and Helen Thery acted as bridesmaids for the ceremony.

A wedding breakfast for members of the family and a few friends at which Mrs. Mabel Colver of Ecree was hostess was held at the Detroit Athletic Club following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hill left immediately on a wedding journey to New York City and Washington, D. C. They will return home after June 1 at Mr. Hill's residence on Westchesterway.

Out-of-town guests who were the house guests of Mr. Hill and his daughter, Miss Barbara Hill, included Mrs. James E. Hill of Winthrop, Mrs. Fred G. Hill of Farmington, L. I., Fred J. Hill of West Englewood, N. J. and Mrs. B. C. Whitney of Farmington, Conn.

Miss Hill entertained the bridal party at a buffet supper Friday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. P. Thery, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thery, Mrs. Fred G. Hill, Fred J. Hill and the Misses Mildred and Helen Thery.
