Y. M. C. A. CAMP TO OPEN JULY

Extensive Outdoor Program Planned For 4th Annual Season

With another full schedule of outdoor activities prepared, the Oakland County Y. M. C. A. summer camp for boys at Loon Lake near Hale, will open July 1 for its fourth annual season. It was announced this week by Robert Lynd, secretary of the Birmingham "Y" and director of the camp. The camp period will again be divided into four sections of two weeks each, closing Aug. 26.

The wide variety of recreational and educational activities to be offered again this year, Mr. Lynd said, will include horse-back riding, canoeing, swimming, fishing, sailing, athletics, woodcraft, wild life propagation and conservation, manual arts, nature exhibits, photography, hiking, dramatics, music, and Indian lore.

The camp is named "Mahn-gah-nah" from the name of the "Great Heart." It was a greeting to the Hiawatha in Longfellow's poem of that name, and is particularly fitting to Loon Lake inasmuch as the city of Loon is the birthplace of the poet.

The camp will again be provided with a senior counselor for each tent of six boys, and associated with each senior counselor will be a junior counselor. The senior counselors will be selected from the ranks of teachers, principals, college seniors and graduates students, and young business men with college training. Junior counselors are chosen from among high school students and the older campers.

Operated as a community in which boys and leaders live together on a co-operative, self-governing basis, the camp is designed to place special emphasis on character training and health. A physician, a nurse, and a trained nurse will be in residence at the camp throughout the six weeks.

The camp trustees are E. W. Seaholm, Birmingham, president; George T. Hendrie, Bloomington, vice-president; C. E. Summers, Pontiac, treasurer; Maurice F. Cole, Ferndale, secretary and advisor; Dr. Fredrick W. Baker, Pontiac; W. P. Edmondson, Pontiac; Ivan H. Long, Pontiac; E. Yankine, Pontiac; Frederick D. Madison, Royal Oak; E. C. Huston, Birmingham, and John E. Martin, Birmingham.

(Continued 4 from Page 1) "In Tuesday morning's Press, there is a story indicating the attitude of the City of Pontiac in reference to this matter. If we go to the equalization committee of the Board of Supervisors with a roll anywhere near approximating 10 million dollars, our property owners will be grossly discriminated against.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY J. B. Hewitt, local insurance agent, that the city of Birmingham is contemplating a roll this year of around $200,000, as compared with a roll last year of about $220,000. Mr. Birmingham should make change in its roll, it would grossly unfair to the taxpayers he declared.

OPERA STAR AT MAY FESTIVAL

Great Stueckold and Friday and Saturday evening at the Hill Auditorium.

Great Stueckold, distinguished Wagnerian operatic singer, will be the soloist at the Friday evening concert when the program will consist entirely of the works of Richard Wagner, in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of his death.

Several Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills music lovers are attending one or more of the concerts in the annual May Festival in Ann Arbor, which opened last night and will continue through Saturday. Concerts will be held tonight Friday and Saturday afternoon.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY Luther Hancock, 452 1/2 Broadway street, "I don't know about other people, but I read the minutes of the City Commission meetings as they are published every week. It may be economy to quit publishing them, but I suspect that I believe it is something the taxpayers are entitled to."

(Continued 4 from Page 1) "I'd like to leave Herbert Hoover for my neighbor," spoke up seven-year-old Francis Arthur Buckridge, a student at Adams School. The remark, followed by a little boisterous guffaw, resulted in Francis sitting down and penning a note of youthful friendship and admiration to his country's former chief executive. A short time later the boy received the following reply:

(Continued 5 from Page 1) "I deeply appreciate your letter because some time ago, and I want you to know that I am grateful for the friendship which it shows.

(Continued 6 from Page 1) "I hope you will accept my love for the happiness and prosperity of you and all your family. Yours faithfully, HERBERT HOOVER."

(Continued 7 from Page 1) Frederick A. Prothero of Hanna street will conduct a round table discussion on "Voice and the Art of Singing" at the Pontiac Music Guild at the American Legion home in Pontiac, May 25. Divers taking part will be Dr. Carl Bender of Detroit, William Engel, director of the all-city special orchestras and the Detroit String Choir, and John Challis of Ypsilanti.

(Continued 8 from Page 1) Birmingham friends of Carpenter Hewitt, son of the late Mr. Virginia Hewitt, will be interested to hear that he has passed the examination and was admitted to the Wayne County Bar, Friday. Mr. Hewitt was graduated from the University of Detroit College of Law, and formerly attended Baldwin High School. He is the nephew of Mrs. Charles Field of Oakland avenue.

(Continued 9 from Page 1) charter, S. V. Norton of Long Pine road suggested that the city might sponsor municipal bridge tournaments and other entertainments. The proceeds to be used to pay off of the city's deficit, which will be about $1,000,000.

(Continued 10 from Page 1) The budget proposed by the Commission calls for expenditures during 1933 of $7,375,000, of which $2,475,000 would be raised by taxation and $4,900 by miscellaneous revenue. Collections are estimated at 50 per cent of last year's budget provided for gross expenditures of $65,100 and a tax levy of $47,000.

(Continued 11 from Page 1) According to Assessor S. Starr, the proposed budget as it now stands, with the assessed valuation approximately the same as that of last year, would call for a tax rate of 5.5 mills. Last year's rate was 5.74 mills.

LEAGUE OPPOSED TO THATCHER BILL

Women Voters Voice Objection To Proposed For Sale Primary Ballot

The Birmingham Branch of the League of Women Voters, along with other branches of the League throughout the state, is in receipt today as proposed to a bill now before the State Legislature which would place the primary election in primary election and for part-time election boards.

The Thatcher bill, as it is called, would provide for a single primary ballot with the names of the candidates arranged in the order of their respective party columns. The voter would be required to designate his party by placing a cross at the top of his party column, and to confine his vote to candidates of that party.

Proponents of the bill argue that printing costs would be greatly reduced and that voters would be able to maintain complete secrecy regarding their party affiliation.

The objection of the League of Women Voters to the bill, as explained by Mrs. F. W. Hawley, president of the local branch, is based on the belief that a party affiliation test closing the primary would apply to all but the voters of that party.

The bill was introduced by former Gov. Wilbur M. Brackley, and is now before the Senate. It is supported by the League, Mrs. Hawley pointed out. The bill was introduced for the selection of election boards from lists submitted by the county. The change would result in giving more than 25 per cent of the vote in each county for secretary of election boards.

The League opposes this provision in the bill, Mrs. Hawley said, because it believes that election inspectors chosen in that manner would be partisan in their points of view. Election board workers should be entirely free of official connection with any political party, the League maintains.

In this, I suppose, German youth are no different from the youth of our own country. Hitler is an opportunist speaker who promised everything to everybody during his rise to power. It is now up to the youth to see that it exceeds only more difficult.
