

THE S and THAT

By G. R. ...

There are those who claim that the machinery to supplant the old, creating the paradox of a surplus of things to eat, wear, and use, and a surplus of unemployed men, makes it impossible to purchase the necessities of life. I am interested in reading what the other evening ...

TEACHERS AWAIT VACATION, "BROKE" BEFORE IT STARTS

Two Weeks' Cash Pay Will Help, But Dreary Summer Is In Prospect

A four-months' vacation without pay—and "broke" before it starts.

That is the prospect which lies before the majority of Birmingham public school teachers today, with the school system scheduled to close Friday for the summer.

COMMISSION GETS PETITION DEMANDING THAT BAN BE LIFTED

EARLY VOTE EXPECTED

The sale of 3.2 beer in restaurants remained a leading issue in Birmingham today as the R. F. C. Hanley, city clerk, continued his work of checking the 700 signatures on a petition requesting the Commission to reverse its original stand in refusing to allow the sale of beer for consumption in public places.
