Helen Grawn Keeps Girls' Title

Flashing the same consistent, steady game which has made her indoor girls' tennis champ, Helen Grawn, 16-year-old Liggett School girl of Detroit, successfully defended her state girls' outdoor title at Kingswood School Sunday against Melanie Vier of the Convent of the Sacred Heart.

The scores were 6-1, 6-1. Helen, who won the Michigan title for the first time at Kingswood last year, was never hard pressed to win. She defeated the same opponent in the third round of the 1932 tourney.

Helen, the daughter of Carl Grawn, president of the Detroit Tennis Club, was one of 17 girls entered in the competition. She defeated Celia Scott of Detroit Central in the semi-finals.

HULET FILLS VACANCY ON TOWNSHIP BOARD

The Bloomfield Township Board, at a special meeting Friday night, appointed A. L. Hulet, Square Lake and Franklin roads, justice of the peace and a member of the board, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of John A. Milotte. Mr. Hulet, who is supervisor of welfare work in the Pontiac schools, will serve until July 4, 1935.

ing to get it. We can't stop them out here."

He referred to the fact that Birmingham voted more than 2 to 1 for repeal of the 18th amendment last fall.

"What has that got to do with it?" Mayor Allen asked. "I voted for repeal of prohibition myself, but that doesn't mean that I believe liquor should be sold in restaurants."

In answer to a question from the mayor, Mr. Jarooke said he believed 90 per cent of the patrons of local restaurants were transients—"which is all the more reason," he asserted, "why restaurant owners should be allowed to sell beer."

Shire's Get License

Following this discussion the Commission approved an application for a license from Shire Brothers' Market, 180 West Maple avenue. The market had previously been refused a license because it is a partnership, owned by three residents of Wayne County.

Sam Shire, manager of the market, obtained a ruling from the State Liquor Control Commission which declared partnerships to be in the same status as corporations with regard to the sale of beer. Any corporation licensed to do business in Michigan is allowed to sell beer, whether or not the owners live in the county where the permit is granted. Independent merchants must be legal residents of the county before they can be issued beer licenses.

not defend, at the start," Mr. Noonan said.

Shain Asks Cut

"Even if our roll should be reduced in equalization, school taxes would still be levied on the higher valuation, and the jeopardy of the school system would thus be eliminated. As a matter of fact, it is doubtful if rumors that units throughout the county are planning to submit rolls reduced from 15 to 50 per cent of their former valuations prove true. The State Tax Commission is opposed to such a procedure, and it is likely that the county board of equalization will also be opposed."

The chief argument advanced by Charles J. Shain, member of the board of supervisors, and others for subjecting the Birmingham roll to a blanket cut is that unless this is done, and providing other units reduce by large percentages, the equalization board is not likely to reduce the Birmingham roll in proportion, although it probably would reduce it somewhat.

Mr. Shain last week asked the Commission to instruct the assessor to reduce the roll at least 15 per cent.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Mrs. Ralph L. Carroll, of Arlington drive: Birmingham people certainly owe a debt of gratitude to the school teachers for the fine spirit of cooperation shown in carrying on their work so splendidly under the severe financial difficulties of recent years. Credit should not end without someone making public expression of gratitude to them.

more numerous this year unless checked sooner he said.

Demonstration of the little-known art of sand sculpture is promised for Birminghamites for today, Friday and Saturday when Eugene Kirtz, itinerant sand sculptor from Atlantic City, N. J., will give a free exhibition on a vacant lot next to the Oliver Cadillac garage on North Woodward avenue. Working from photographic copies from sand in a box frame, Kirtz will continue his demonstration throughout the day on all three days, he told this Weekender.

And speaking of flowers: The public is also invited to visit the display of nearly half a million iris now in bloom on the Lloyd Knoll Iris Farm on Twelve Mile and Orchard Lake roads. Nearly 300 varieties are represented.

Peninsula are frankly worried as to how they are going to get there.

One teacher pointed out that the uncertainty of the date for the opening of school in the fall adds to the difficulties of faculty members.

Many Bills Unpaid

Many teachers, of course, will be forced to leave unpaid rent, grocery, clothing and utilities bills in their wake when they leave Birmingham for the summer. Against her debts, they have what scrip they have been unable to negotiate, plus their back salary credits.

Any teacher who wishes to take all of his or her back pay in scrip may do so. But most of them have preferred to allow their accounts to remain open. Any cash received during the summer, from bank deposit dividends, tax refunds or other sources, will be pro-rated among the teachers and sent to them at their homes immediately, Mr. Randall said.

All of the teachers interviewed were grateful for the co-operation they have received from the local business men who have accepted scrip. Although the number of these merchants has not been large at any one time, a few of them have taken scrip in almost unlimited quantities, and have collected more than they could immediately dispose of.

"A few of these merchants have gone out of their way to help the teachers in their scrip problem," said C. J. Brame, manager of the Birmingham Credit Bureau, in commenting on this phase of the situation. "Their willingness to cooperate deserves the respect and attention of the entire community."

Problem for Individuals

Primarily the whole problem has been one for each individual teacher to solve for himself. All they have done with varying success, but always courageously, is with their coats up—buying their next week's groceries where the store-keepers would take scrip, or opening an account with a cooperative restaurant proprietor, selling a little scrip perhaps, to a friend who needed to pay his taxes, economizing, cutting down, grateful to be able to get rid of a piece of scrip here, and thankful for having another real dollar for an essential expenditure there.

It has been merely a process of "muddling through." The process will be continued this summer, but "muddling through" threatens to become increasingly difficult for most teachers as time goes on.
