New Service League Nursery Will Be Opened Wednesday

In a nursery equipped with diminutive furniture ingeniously made from orange crates, members of the Birmingham Service League will entertain small children on Wednesday afternoon each week to enable mothers to enjoy a half-holiday.

The clinic room at the Community House will be outfitted as an indoor nursery where, beginning next Wednesday, children from three to six years will be cared for under the direction of Miss Rosemary Grimmelsman, who will be in charge. Among the supervised activities directed by Miss Grimmelsman will be dramatizations, rythms, stories and rest periods.

The plan was devised by the League at the suggestion of Mrs. Roland H. Mann, to give mothers an opportunity, on one afternoon a week to be free from home cares and responsibilities. For the small sum of 25 cents, mothers may leave her little ones at the Service League Nursery between the hours of 1 to 5 P. M., with the assurance that they will be adequately cared for as well as entertained.

For the present, the nursery will be open on Wednesdays only, but if the plan proves popular with mothers, arrangements will be made to keep it open a second day each week. The plan is to accommodate 15 children or more each Wednesday.

On warm, spring and summer days when the out-of-doors invites, the children will play under supervision on the vacant lot next to the Community House, which is being cleared by the Boy Scouts for the purpose.

The committee in charge of the nursery is headed by Miss Mary Latham, and includes Miss Ruth Pratt, Miss Marian Fowler and Miss Grimmelsman.

The Service League is an organization composed of 50 active members, and is still taking in young women from the ages of 18 to 25 years as associate members. The object of the League is to serve the community in various ways, including taking patients to and from clinics, sewing for the Red Cross, teaching braille to the blind, assisting the tubercular clinic, sewing for the Needlework Guild, and other service activities.
