UNEMPLOYED WILL HEAR RADIO STARS

Fair and Square Club Entertains To Give Free Program For City's Jobless

A dozen or more radio stars of the Detroit News Fair and Square Club will entertain the unemployed of Birmingham at Baldwin High School Auditorium Friday night in the fourth of a series of free programs being sponsored by the Birmingham Fellowship Club. The program will begin at 7:45 P. M.

All of the entertainers who will appear here have performed for the Fair and Square Club numerous times over station WJZ. A symphonic sextet, directed by Celia Merrill of Willoway, on West Long Lake road, and selected from musical students in Highland Park High School, will play several numbers. The director has gained wide a cognition as a talented violinist.

The Cantrell brothers, John and Curtis, 11 and 13 years old, will sing several numbers, accompanying themselves on guitars. In some of their songs they will be joined by a still younger brother in three-part harmony.

The Girard Brothers, Bud, Phil and Howard, will appear in several novelty numbers, and respond to requests from the audience.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
David E. Anderson, treasurer of Bloomfield Township: "Bloomfield Township has settled with the county treasurer after closing its 1932 tax rolls. The total collection in the township was about 38 per cent."

"Evaluating Funerals" was the subject of the lesson study of the Christian Science Church throughout the world on Sunday, May 3, 1933.

Among the Bible citations was the passage (John 8:12): "I am the light of the world. He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." The lesson was read and the text was read and the text was read.

Creative messages read from the Christian Science "Textbook: Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following: "The world is made of matter, but the science of Jesus adjusts the science of matter to the science of spirit. The science of spirit is the science of God's nature of destroying sin."

DeMolay Banquet To Honor Mothers

Redford Minister Will Speak; Chapter Elects New Officers; Plans Installation

The eighth annual Mother and Son banquet of Hassberg Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will be held next Wednesday evening in the K. of P. Hall, beginning at 7 P. M. Rev. J. R. McWilliams of the Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church will be the speaker.

Entertainment will include vocal and instrumental selections, and a short play to be presented by three members of the chapter. Elmer Hixon, Dal Fear and William Lancy.

William Guckelberg will act as toastmaster for the banquet. Gordon Lawton will deliver the toast for the sons, and the mothers will be represented by a chapter not yet chosen.

New officers of the chapter will be inducted at a public ceremony to be held May 26 at the K. of P. Hall. Elected Monday night, they are William Metz, master councilor; William Guckelberg, senior councilor, and Wayne White, junior councilor.

FORUM TO DISCUSS BANKING SITUATION

A discussion of the local banking situation will constitute the program at the regular meeting of the Men's Forum of the First Methodist Church to be held at 10 A. M. Sunday in the Community House. The discussion will be led by Fred W. Johnson and Louis Hasall, members of a committee attempting to organize a new Birmingham national bank. Meetings of the Forum are open to all men in the community.
