

Baldwin Grid Team Upsets Mighty Toledo Scott, 6-0

Fans Of Both Schools Stunned As Maples Turn Back Powerful Foe

(Continued from Page 1, Part 1) The line or around end. He bounced and spinned off would-be tacklers as a bullet glances off a steel wall. His passes were hard and accurate, and he ran the team with smart generalship. Frequent fumbles, however, marred his game, and the yards lost near the close of the contest when his fingers were stiff with cold and the ball slippery as a cake of wet soap, took the spirit out of both him and his teammates. Brown fumbled five times during the game. Toledo fans said it was the first time they had seen him fumble this year.

Brown was injured just before the game came to a close. Roundly hitting on a wide sweep, he appeared for a second to be on the way to a touchdown, although the play was in Toledo territory, but he was hit hard by Donaldson and was unable to get up. The team's physician diagnosed his injury as a probable fracture of the fibula.

Carried Off

As the dusky little quarterback was carried off the field, the crowd gave a round of appropriate applause for what was undoubtedly one of the best exhibitions of offensive football ever seen in Birmingham.

Although breaks beyond doubt contributed most to Baldwin's victory, one very important break went in favor of the Toledoans, giving them a golden opportunity to score a touchdown.

It was near the end of the third quarter. Turk punted deep into Maple territory. De Beauvoir, Baldwin halfback, was called for clipping and the ball went to Scott on Birmingham's 20-yard line.

Attack Repulsed

On three plays, Brown carried the ball to the seven-yard mark, got there the Baldwin line stiffened. Three plunges gained only four yards and an end sweep on fourth down resulted in a loss. Guckelberg punted out of danger and the game was saved.

In a desperate attempt to score in the waning minutes of the contest, Scott attempted four passes, all of which were incomplete. The game ended with Baldwin in possession of the ball on Scott's 16-yard line.

The Maples' victory was scored without the services of Kenny McBride, star half-back, and the injured shoulder kept him out of the lineup entirely.

It was the first time Baldwin had played Scott since 1928, when the Maples went to Toledo and came back with the small end of a 35 to 0 score. A return game is scheduled to be played in Scott's stadium next year.

PROPERTY TAX DROPPED SHOWS ASKED BY EDDIE COLLINS

Property Owner This Year Will Pay Only Half As Much As In 1932-33

By CHARLES W. CRANDELL, Superintendent of Birmingham Schools

Let us make a comparison of school costs for a person owning a piece of property within this school district for the years 1932-33 and 1933-34.

For example, take a man whose property in 1932-33 had an assessed valuation of $6,000, and he had two children in the public schools.

In 1932-33 the school tax rate was $18.80 per thousand dollars. An assessed valuation of $6,000 meant a school tax of $113.16. For the schooling of two children, the cost to him was $56.58 per child.

Valuations Down

The average decrease of assessed valuation in the school district for 1933-34 from that of 1932-33 is approximately 20 per cent. The decrease in school tax rate in the district at the same time is a decrease of 40 per cent. On this basis, a valuation of $6,000 in 1932-33 drops to $4,800 for 1933-34. The school tax rate drops from $18.80 per thousand for 1932-33 to $11.28 per thousand for 1933-34.

For 1933-34, this property, assessed at $5,000, with a new school tax rate of $10.28 per thousand, must pay a school tax of $51.40 (or 20 cents a day)—an actual decrease in school tax of $53.30, or 50 per cent. For the schooling of the two children, the cost for this man, or only $25.70, is 15 cents a day—40 per cent of $29.18 per child.

It is interesting to note further that were it not for debt service appropriation, the cost for 1933-34 would have been only $32.50 for this man, or only $16.25 per child.

Principal Payments Omitted

The average decrease of debt service appropriation this year includes payment for interest on principal included, the total rate would have been $12.57 per thousand, or an added cost of $75.00 for this man. This would have meant an added cost of $4.03 per child for this man.

It is pertinent to question where else than in the schools can any one secure such valuable service at so low a cost?

This lowering of costs also accentuates individual responsibility. Lowering of costs increases the need of payment, if the service is to be continued. In other words, to both realize these tax savings and to maintain school service it is necessary to secure the current school tax. Failure to pay obviously means penalizing the child by reducing the advantages to which he is entitled.

IN DETROIT THEATERS

WILSON

The Singing Boys of Vienna, now in their second American tour, will make their only Detroit appearance this year under the auspices of the Detroit Town Hall Series at the Wilson Theater next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

The boys are members of a musical bazaar founded in 1498 by the imperial decree of Emperor Maximilian, when a group of boy singers were ordered to sing a daily mass under the auspices of the court orchestra. For nearly 500 years, the tradition of this organization has been kept intact.

At its concert here, the choir will present a new program of arias, national choruses and Christmas songs, as well as Offenbach's comic opera, "Marriage by Lantern Light" to be acted in costume. The organization appeared last year at Orchestra Hall on its first American tour.

NOTE—Answers to Eddie Collins' questions printed above.

1—By a free kick on the 20-yard line.

2—Loss of ball to defensive team where ball was put in play.

3—Defensive's ball, first down, 10 to go, on its 45-yard line. Fair catch allowed.

4—Offensive team is penalized 15 yards and loss of down from spot of preceding down.

5—Ball dead where player touched ground. Second down, offensive's ball.

1933 CHRISTMAS SEALS DESIGNED

Annual Sale of Anti-Tuberculosis Stamps To Begin Thanksgiving Day

Three jolly fellows racing across a brilliant winter landscape will remind the American public of an ancient custom—bringing in the yule log—when the 1933 tuberculosis Christmas seals are on sale Thanksgiving Day. A tiny double-barred cross stands for the modern custom of sharing Christmas joy with the tuberculous sick through purchase of penny seals.

Perhaps the artist had the homely American phrase for success, "bringing home the bacon," in mind when he painted his cheery action picture which will liberally illustrate the anti-tuberculosis crusade across the land. Pennies brought in by annual Christmas seals have supported campaigns against the disease for 27 years.

"The great war against tuberculosis is not over, but the result of the growing offensive is shown in a declining death rate," declares Dr. Frank Douglas, president of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. According to Dr. Douglas, the foremost factor in reducing the number of deaths from tuberculosis is the early discovery of the disease in its easily and intensively handled stage.

"For this reason the Michigan Tuberculosis Association is now concentrating its effort on an early discovery program," Douglas explains. "The Association shared the seal pennies has gone army for tuberculin testing of over 30,000 individuals and X-ray examinations of 5,134 in the past two years."

"Since tuberculosis is the leading cause of death among children in Michigan, the greater share of funds received from the sale of 1933 tuberculosis Christmas seals will be used to continue this life-saving work."
