Lighting spirit for the game aroused Wednesday evening at a bonfire and pep meeting on the Hill School grounds.

"Another reason for my objection to the sale of liquor in bars is not for only one purpose—to make money. The customer takes a chance of being prosecuted and adulteration and is exposed to various devices designed to increase profits, the variety and extent of such practice depending on the character of the proprietor."

Commissioner Asks That Liquor Be Sold by Package Only

"I have no sympathy whatever with the idea that bars should be operated as a source of public revenue. The temperate consumer should be made to 'pay through the nose.' I would make public temperance so expensive that it would become prohibitive and, if possible, arrange the laws so that no suspended sentences would be possible."
