Merchants Want Past Due Scrips Payable On 1933 Taxes

"The thing for you to do," said the doctor to the man with the frazzled nerves, "is to stop thinking about your taxes—to bury your head in the sand."
"Gosh!" returned the patient, "and a concrete mixer!"

O. K. ACCEPTANCE PLAN

A committee representing the Birmingham Retail Merchants Association is expected to request the Board of Education at its meeting tonight to adopt a resolution making past due school scrips payable on 1933 school taxes. This action was advocated at a meeting of the Association in the Community House Tuesday night, when its members voted their support for the plan.

THE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

Turning from the city newspapers to the small town press, we find a curious thing. The editor's desk is like stepping from the sun, full of vice, into an old-fashioned garden sweet with lavender and thyme and the scent of perennial flowers. The pages of the small town papers are full of these things, and the editor's desk is like stepping from the sun, full of vice, into an old-fashioned garden sweet with lavender and thyme and the scent of perennial flowers.

JUST THREE

If you nose is close and your eyes are sharp, you can see three things in the world today. One is the fact that the world is a better place than it was a few years ago. The second is the fact that the world is a better place than it was a few years ago. The third is the fact that the world is a better place than it was a few years ago.
