The Birmingham Eccentric Progressing Toward Justice

Advises Newspaper Advertising

From an exchange we pick up the following circular, sent out to store managers by the J. C. Penney company, operators of a large chain of retail stores:

"(1) Do you want to be certain of reader interest? Then use the newspapers. Many a circular receives only a glance, while the local newspaper, with hundreds of general news items, is read thoroughly from first to last nace.

Shall We Have a New Postoffice?

Do the citizens of Birmingham with to give the middle block of the Civic Center, attracted between the City Hall and the Public Library, to the United States government, for the erection of a new Postoffice? This question is being debated by City officials, following presentation of the idea to them by Postmaster Joseph F, Byrne. The land cost Birmingham 5148,091.50, exclusive of condemnation legal fees, and Birmingham 148,091.50, exclusive of condemnation legal fees, and Birmingham titll owes 5129,272.00 on it. It was purchased on a contract several years ago, as part of a general plan to create an area for the housing of public buildings, which included three blocks. The block suggested for a Postoffice is the was originally intended as a park area, although some discussion was held on the advisability of it being used some day for a Postoffice.

It seems to us that the ides of using the size for a Postoffice is to was office the necessity of having the federable for the proposed for the condition of the unique of the condition of the condition of the unique of the condition of the condition of the unique of the condition of the condition of the unique of the condition of the condition of the unique of the condition of the condition of the unique of the condition of the condition of the condition of the cond
