

Kingswood Students Plan Carnival and Vaudeville

Students of Kingswood School, Cranbrook will frolic in their second annual carnival to be presented in the school gymnasium at 8 P. M. Saturday before an audience composed of relatives and friends.

The program will open with a vaudeville show featuring the "Kingswood Revue" or "A Day at Kingswood" in which the activities of the school will be shown in four acts. The principal roles in this dramatic sketch will be played by Sylvia Callender, Johanna Saffrin, and Doris Otter. Singing in the chorus, which will be led by Margery Hood, will be Mary Jane Brown, Anabel Avery, Helen Ferris, Mary Ann Barnett, June Hesse, Marjorie Strong, Loraine Lambert, Margaret Jones, Lighter, Mary Louise Viger, Catherine Wilson, Jeanne Wilson, Ada Winslow, Elizabeth Wallace, and Gretchen Watson.

Tap dancers in the revue will be Elizabeth Harvey, Kathleen Belknap, and Miss Watson. The remainder of the carnival will consist of a variety of entertainment including character dances and athletic feats. Joan Musky will do a tap dance, and Martha Thompson and June Daisley will present a Raggedy Ann and Andy dance.

Those taking part in a tumbling act will be Mary Wiseman, Shirley Keppel, Ellen Wallace, June Daisley, Joan Musky, Barbara Shovel, Cynthia Adams, Florence Barker, Martha Thompson, Mary Hibbard, Doris Richard, and Helen Backus.

An exhibition of social dancing will be presented by June Hesse, Marjorie Gilbert, Sally Davis, Jean Hill, Margery Hood, Florence Schust, Doris Saffrin, Mary Helen Lorrain, Lorraine Lambert, and June Alexander. Dancing for the guests will conclude the program.

Booths sponsored by the classes will provide candy, flowers, fortune telling, and refreshments.

In charge of arrangements is a committee composed of Miss Ada Winslow, Miss Elizabeth Wallace, Miss Marilyn Wherry, Miss Gretchen Watson and Miss Margaret Jane Lighter.

DRAMA... DANCE...

Taught By Donald and Violet ARMAND Community House Phone 412M

REDUCE

Comfortably—Scientifically with vapor baths and massage, thus improving your general health. Consultation invited.

EDITH L. PARKER Registered Nurse in Michigan 845 N. Business, Pontiac Phone 3-2800 PARKING PLACE IN REAR

Mrs. Fowler's Nursery School

Mrs. Woodruff's Nursery School in Birmingham has been taken over by Mrs. Richard C. Fowler.

AGES 2 TO 7 COR. HARMON & BALDWIN Phone 1621 for Particulars

Little children develop best through well-directed play

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Edgar T. Coombs of Puritan road was hostess at a bridge luncheon on Friday afternoon recently in honor of Mrs. E. E. Joslyn, of Southfield road, formerly of St. Louis, Mo. The guests included besides the honoree, Mrs. H. W. Napier, Mrs. C. E. Usick, Mrs. Thomas E. Walton, Mrs. Norman James, Mrs. Warren Peace, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Scott.

Mrs. Helen E. Walton of Frank street had as her dinner guests last Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Jackson and Mrs. William Coombs of Detroit. Mrs. Walton also entertained guests at dinner Wednesday.

Mrs. N. H. Moysey of Yorkshire road has as her guest for the week-end, Mrs. L. F. Fanning of Grosse Pointe, Mich. Mr. Moysey flew to Chicago Saturday to be gone for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Neesley of Oak street had as their guests Wednesday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cick of Columbus, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble of Safford had with their children, Clark and Jane, left Wednesday for Chicago to attend the World's Fair.

Balloons in the pastel shades adorned the dining room of the home of Mrs. H. Victor Spike of Glenhurst drive, Saturday when she entertained eight small guests at a treasure hunt and dinner in honor of the eighth birthday of her daughter, Shirley Suzanne. Pink and green were used in the table decorations, combined with ivory tapers and crystal dinner service. The guests included Maria Louise Graham, Ann Harrell, Jaqueline Potter, Christine Farr, Carolyn Cain and Ellen Kay Cutright, and Edith McCullough of Detroit. Assisting Mrs. Spike were Mrs. Francis D'Arkos of Dearborn, and Mrs. Sonia MacCormack of Bay City. Mrs. MacCormack was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Spike for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wragby of Rivenock road had as their guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Paul of Lima, O. Mr. and Mrs. Wragby and their guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Snyder of Madison avenue and Mr. and Mrs. C. LeRoy Austin of Lakeside drive attended the football game in Ann Arbor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Noonan of Birmingham boulevard entertained 10 guests at dinner Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Sonia MacCormack of Bay City. Mrs. Noonan's mother, Mrs. Hubert Skiffington of Detroit.

Mrs. Charles H. Welch, Jr., of Safford road will be hostess to 16 guests at luncheon at her home Monday, afterwards taking the

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wood of George street were week-end guests in Saginaw.

Mrs. R. H. Mann and her daughter, Miss Katherine Mann of Greenwood avenue, left Monday for Chicago, where they will spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt A. McDonald and their family will leave Birmingham about Nov. 1, to make their home in New York City. Mrs. McDonald was the honor guest at a tea of lovely appointments Saturday, at which Mrs. S. S. Marquis of Lone Pine road was the hostess.

In addition to dancing, Mrs. E. E. Warner of Detroit will be the program of songs, and there will be fortune telling and other Halloween's feasting who will come for the week-end and remain for the week-end will be Mr. and Mrs. P. Wynne of Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gilliam of Warren, O. will be the guests of Mrs. Peters and Edward Baby of Windsor. Mr. and Mrs. Beckett had as their guests for the week-end, Mrs. Gilliam and Mrs. M. A. Wolcott, also of Warren, O. In honor of their guests they were hosts at dinner and bridge for eight guests last Thursday, and at a dinner for six guests at the Book-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit on Friday. They also attended the football game in Ann Arbor Saturday with their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller of Beverly road had as their guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Munnell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munnell and their three children, E. Yule, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Van Dusen, Miss Mary Bell Miller of Richmond, Va., and Donald McCrea, besides Mr. and Mrs. Hoey.

Dining together at Oakland Hills country club Saturday following the football game in Ann Arbor, were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lewellen, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Eule, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. David E. Ralston.

Mrs. T. W. Wideman of Rivenock road will entertain members of her study group at luncheon Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Slusser of Piercy street were the guests Sunday of Mrs. F. P. Rinehart, Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Stanton of Mohegan drive entertained 10 guests at dinner Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Babcock of Glenhurst drive and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Salisbury of Safford road entertained jointly at dinner for 20 guests at the home of the former, Saturday, in honor of Mrs. Helen Ayers of Keokuk, Ia., the former, Mrs. Madeline Scott of Lone Pine road.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Bailey of East Maple avenue will leave for Flint Saturday, where they will spend the week-end.

Mrs. H. C. Murray of Henrietta street was hostess at a Halloween party Monday evening at which the members of her Sunday School class were guests. At the party were the Misses Betty Herrick, Julia Greensburg, Helen Martin, Esther Jones, Ruth Jones, Helen Ives, Joy Lackey, Shirley Hersey, Mildred Dalee, Phyllis Tobias, Fatty Allen and Dorothy Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Ralston of Safford road, will leave Birmingham about Nov. 7, to reside in Lansing.

Miss Dorothea York of Royal Oak will be hostess at tea Saturday for a group of musically interested women from Birmingham and neighboring cities. The guests will include Mrs. Norman Lyle, Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. Gerald J. McMechan, Mrs. Frank H. Mellinger, Mrs. Orville H. Foster, Jr., of Beverly Hills, Mrs. Duncan McKee and Mrs. Frank Packman of Royal Oak, Mrs. Blissa Wells, Mrs. W. F. Maybury and Mrs. Margery Bennett of Pontiac. Dr. Francis L. York will speak informally on recent developments in public school music.

Edward H. Laird of George street and Duane Buermann of Pierce street attended the football game of the University of Michigan and Ohio State University in Ann Arbor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Becker of Shirley drive will be hosts at a masked Halloween dance for 20 guests at their home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. I. Saborn of Puritan road left Monday for Houston, Tex., where they plan to spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Thora Smith of Cranbrook road and their daughter, Miss Katherine Smith, will leave Monday to spend their winter residence at Fort Myers, Fla., where they will spend the next six months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Magrin of Dorchester road had as their guests for dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McConnell of Detroit, Roland Peyron Baron of Paris, France and Owen Aughin of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Mead of Puritan road had as their guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. G. Swain of Akron, O. Mrs. Mead was hostess at luncheon Wednesday to a group of friends including Mrs. Edward W. White, Miss Marian White, Mrs. May Traver, Mrs. Richard P. Hoy, Mrs. M. T. Lightbody, Mrs. Donald E. Magee and Mrs. Sam Baker, all of Detroit.

Christmas Cards for Personal Use

SMART - DISTINCTIVE - ORIGINAL

Before buying from peddlers representing out of town concerns—compare our assortment and prices.

LA BELLE'S

Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts

137 W. Maple Phone 1228

100% All Wool FLANNEL ROBES

A fine assortment of colors with contrasting trim styled to please the most fastidious.

$3.45

Beautiful Corduroys and others from $3.95 up.

TWIN SHOP

160 W. MAPLE

SPECIAL PUMPKIN PIES

Large Size—Regular 30c

FRIDAY and SATURDAY ONLY 25c

If you would have something extra fine... TRY OUR CHOCOLATE ECLAIRS and CREAM PUFFS.

MACHUS

BAKERY AND PASTRY SHOP

150 W. Maple

OPENING SATURDAY

NORMAN'S

TOGGERY

133 NORTH WOODWARD

The newest and smartest in NECKWEAR awaits your approval and selection at the opening of this new Birmingham Shop.

You will be gratified at the quality and variety from which to make your selections. NORMAN'S will continually feature neckwear in all the desirable patterns and fabrics. You will also find a complete assortment of men's Hose... in the dominating patterns and featured in conjunction with our neckwear. SHIRTS, of course, but the white shirt above all. Quality broadcloths—all pre-shrunk.

Opening Specials

New Fall Ties 2 for $1.00—55c

Hose 3 Pairs 87c

All silk lined with an all wool inner lining—specially constructed to retain their shape.

New fall weights in Silk and Wool, Silks and Siles and Lisle.

The policy of Norman's will be to give the men and young men of Birmingham and vicinity a store dedicated to this basic principle... Value Above All Else—Plus—Dependable Quality.

Rayon

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Today, Oct. 26: "Ladies' Night" for Boy Scouts, Community House.

Friday, Oct. 27: Meeting A. A. U. W. board of directors, Community House, 9:30 A. M. Parliaments of Law class, 10 A. M. City Managers' Association luncheon, Community House, noon. Report tea for Community House drive workers, at the House, 4 P. M. Community House costume party, at the House, 9 P. M.

Saturday, Oct. 28: First high school group dance, Community House, dinner dance, Birmingham Golf Club. Harvest Hands dance, Orchard Lake Country Club.

Sunday, Oct. 29: Methodist Men's Forum, Community House, 10 A. M.

Monday, Oct. 30: Red Cross Sewing, Community House, 10 A. M. Study Class, League of Women Voters, Community House, 3 P. M. Women's National Farm and Garden Association bridge benefit, home of Mrs. Draper Allen, Westwood drive. Dinner and lucky party, Oakland Hills Country Club.

Tuesday, Oct. 31: Birmingham Service League, Community House, 3:30 P. M. Current events class, Community House, 7:30 P. M.

Thursday, Nov. 2: Teachers' Club, bridge, Community House, 8 P. M.

Wars on Crime

Evelyn Mayle Nelson

Evelyn Mayle Nelson, a former Clark woman, is supervising in the borough of Manhattan, New York City, and is actively warring on crime in that city. She has worked under her a staff of 25 people, including two prevention officers, a sergeant, seven patrolmen, three patrolwomen, two policemen and ten lieutenants.

A Smile of satisfaction...

GOOD-QUALITY FOODS will bring a smile to the face... and health to the body... We are convinced that it is better to offer the best in meats and groceries than to consider price before quality. If you have not given QUALITY FOODS a trial... let us help you. We specialize in Foods of the better quality.

A SUGGESTION

For breakfast... or for that "After the game" luncheon... Just try a good old fashioned loaf of Wheat Cakes—Bacon or Sausage and a good hot cup of Plantation Coffee. This famous coffee has been served for over a quarter of a century to folks who appreciate fine coffee.

OLSEN'S MARKET

120 S. WOODWARD WE DELIVER PHONE 648

"A MARKET DEVOTED TO THE COMMUNITY IT SERVES"