By Central Press NEW YORK. Elaborate and costly receptions in rented ball-rooms of the big hotels...

There is no doubt that a setting of music and all manner of buffet delicacies and refreshment of a vast and ornate ball-room...

For scribblers ostensibly they are for the purpose of allowing newspapermen to meet the star and are male. But actually, in a ball-room filled with several hundred people...

"Why the reason for these blowouts is simple enough," said lady writer of movie chatter, said, sotto voce.

That may sum it up, but as I approached the main entrance of the Waldorf for the Janet Gaynor party, I thought the press wing of the Fox company had really put over a coup.

Later it turned out that the police were there because President Roosevelt was paying a visit to his town house a few blocks away from the street.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Waggoner of Henley drive were hosts at dinner Saturday evening to a group of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Deer of Pittsburgh, formerly of Birmingham...

SCOUTING GETS 'APPRECIATION'

Movement Wins High Praise From Judge McCaffrey And Others

Co-operation between the community and its Boy Scouts and Scout leaders was the keynote of Birmingham's "Boy Scout Appreciation Night" at the Community House last Friday.

An earnest plea for co-operation of parents with the Scout movement was made by Probate Judge Dan A. McCaffrey, of Pontiac, who termed the movement "the most constructive I have ever known."

Tremendous applause greeted the appearance on the platform of the Redford Cox, an end on the University of Michigan football squad of the past three years.

Howard D. Crull, district Scout commissioner and principal of Barum Junior High School, spoke from the executive's standpoint.

Music for the program was furnished by the drum and bugle corps of Troop 3, under the direction of Scout Jules Wendt...
