Baptist Women To Sponsor Three-Day Cooking Course

Birmingham homemakers will be given another opportunity to increase their knowledge of the culinary arts when a cooking class sponsored by the Women's Union of the Baptist Church opens at the church for a three day session on Oct. 4. Mrs. Gladys Phillips, Boverman of Detroit, who conducted Birmingham's first cooking school at the Community House last year under auspices of women's organizations, local merchants and The Eccentric will be the instructor.

The three-day course will be called "Fall Fashions in Foods." On the first day the subject to be discussed and demonstrated by Mrs. Boverman will be "Interesting Main Dishes." On Thursday her subject will be "Festive Cakes and Salads," and on the closing day she will give "Halloween Party Suggestions."

While the mothers are attending the cooking class, a free nursery will be provided, where small children will be cared for on each of the three days.

Another feature of the cooking school will be a social hour following each lesson. Mrs. E. W. Niedenfuhr is general chairman in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morgan and family of Madison avenue expect to leave Birmingham Sept. 29 for Hillsdale where they will make their home for two years. Calvin and Rose Morgan will leave Saturday to enter Hillsdale College. During the Morgans' absence, the W. H. Londons, who have been living on Ridelade avenue, will occupy the Morgan home.

Miss Lucille Lewis of Oak street left Monday for Toledo where she has accepted a position in the Street School for Children.

Mrs. William Fenton Newton of Willis street entertained at luncheon on Wednesday complimenting Mrs. Grace Upton Bathrick, formerly of Battle Creek, who is the guest of Mrs. William Graham of Vinewood avenue.

Plans Under Way For Forming Oratorio Chorus Here

Frederick A. Protheroe, director of the chorus of the Thursday Musical and of the choir of the First Baptist church, announces organization plans for an oratorio chorus of both men and women. Mr. Protheroe will meet those desiring to join on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church, when rehearsals will begin on the oratorio "Ellijah." This is one of the great choral works of all time," Mr. Protheroe stated. "Millions of churchmen and experienced singers will find it of challenging interest both for its musical and dramatic possibilities. It is Mr. Protheroe's hope that this meeting may develop into a permanent community organization. A good voice and the ability to read music are the membership requisites," said Mr. Protheroe.
