FIRE ON FRANK STREET CAUSES $100 DAMAGE
Fire of unknown origin Friday afternoon caused about $100 damage to a vacant house at 623 Frank street, owned by George Erb. The blaze started in the basement, and the flames were confined for the most part to a clothes closet.

6 Marking Periods In School Calendar

1933-34 Year Will Close June 8 If Tentative Schedule Is Followed Out
The tentative 1933-34 program for 15 Birmingham schools calls for schools to stay open until June 8, and work a 10-day vacation at Christmas and a week of spring vacation. Each semester will contain 78 weeks, which will be divided into three marking periods.
The program follows:
Oct. 13 and 14—M. E. A. teachers' meeting of the sixth district at Detroit; Nov. 30 and Dec. 1—Thanksgiving recess; Dec. 22—Christmas vacation begins; Jan. 7—school resumes; Jan. 25—mid-year commencement; Jan. 26—first semester ends; Jan. 28—second semester begins; Mar. 30—spring vacation begins; April 9—school resumes; June 7—spring commencement; June 8—school closes.
The six marking periods will run as follows:
First—Sept. 18 to Oct. 27; second—Oct. 31 to Dec. 5; third—Dec. 11 to Jan. 26; fourth—Jan. 29 to Mar. 9; fifth—Mar. 12 to April 27; sixth April 30 to June 8.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON PLEDGES SCHWARZ

Herman Schwarz, Jr., a graduate of Baldwin High School where he was a star athlete in several sports and captain of the football team in his senior year, has been pledged to Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity at Eureka College, Eureka, Ill., according to information received here this week.
Schwarz, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Schwarz of Wilson road, formerly attended Olivet College.

B. H. S. BAND NEEDS NEW DRUM MAJOR

For the seventh year, Birmingham High School football fans will be entertained before and during home games by the marching and playing of the Baldwin High School Band.
The direction of Arnold W. Berndt, director of music in Birmingham schools, will have approximately 50 members, or about the same as last year.
Mr. Berndt's chief difficulty just now is to find a drum major. He has asked any students who have aspirations of leading the band while marching to report to him for a try-out. Jack Thatcher, the major-domo last year, has been lost through graduation.

SCHOOLS HIRE 85 TEACHERS

A total of 85 teachers is being employed this year in the Birmingham schools. Several of this number are teaching only half days, and many others are teaching a complete day in the afternoon, as well as at other school officials. The letters "F. M." or "A. M." after names designate those teachers who are employed only part-time.

STUDENT CHATTER

By THE CHATTERBOX
Last year, Baldwin Senior High School students were forced to curricular activities. Due to economic conditions, operettas, vocal music, the junior and senior plays, the school yearbook and many other clubs were dropped entirely from the school schedule. At the same time, courses in vocal music, manual training and art were dropped from the three junior high programs.
To many, perhaps, these activities may seem unnecessary and unimportant. However, they are the things that make school life interesting. They are the things the students like to do. These outside activities, especially clubs, are being had serve to build a stronger bond of friendship and understanding between the student and teacher.
The three subjects abolished last year from the junior high schedules are being carried out in Birmingham's high schools. The curriculum of these schools, but most of the activities were dropped from the high school program are still omitted because of School Board finances.

The new study plan of only five periods a day instead of the former seven, now being carried out in three junior highs, has so far not met with much approval on the part of the high school students. The new schedule has made it impossible for some subjects to be included in the program. Solid geometry, public speaking and some other courses are not being taught at Baldwin this semester. Next semester these subjects will be taught and others dropped. Students who had planned on subjects this semester are naturally the ones most disappointed with the new plan. As all new things are hard to become accustomed to at first, it will probably not be long before most students will like the new plan as well as they did the old.

One of the good features of the new plan is that a half an hour a day is set aside for club activities. This period, from 1:15 to 1:45 P. M., may be used for club meetings and other extracurricular activities that are hoped will be organized.

Institute Of Arts Program Released

Announcement Tells Of Public Art Classes, Lecture Series For 1933-34
Four-page complete announcements of the Detroit Institute of Arts for 1933-34 program of public classes and lectures, intended to serve Detroit and neighboring cities, are being distributed, according to Edgar P. Richardson, assistant director. Several classes and lectures of which residents availed themselves of last year's Institute program.
Courses will be offered this season in sketching, appreciation of prints, art of the 16th and 17th centuries, gardening, practical arts, and other subjects, according to the announcement. Persons entitled to receive admission and a three-cent stamp to John A. Pope, in care of the Institute.
The announcement contains the full schedule of the World Adventure Series, a new lecture course which will bring prominent adventurers and other lectures to the museum each week. The series opens Saturday, Oct. 27, with Chapman Andrews, Gobi Desert explorer.
Other lectures in October will include Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for President, on "Phases of Current Politics," Oct. 8; James Ford, president of the Pond Lecture Bureau, New York, on "Other Men's Brains," Oct. 16; Dr. H. B. Baer, assistant curator at the American Museum of Natural History, two illustrated lectures on "Capturing Gorillas in Deep Africa," Oct. 17; Dr. Raymond L. Ditmars, curator of reptiles at the New York Zoological Institute, on "Strange Reptiles of the World," Oct. 22; Dr. Bruno Roselli, Italian diplomat and founder of the Italian department at Vassar College, illustrated lecture on "Art Along the Adriatic," Oct. 29; and Amelia Earhart, famous flyer, two lectures on "Up in the Air," and "Flying for Fun," Oct. 31.

MAROON GRIDDERS GET NEW JERSEYS

By DEAN BEIER
Welcome relief came to several Baldwin High School football candidates this week with the arrival of 22 new sweat jerseys, to be used in practice. Because such a large number of players reported for the squad, Coach Miles W. Robinson was forced when the season opened to issue several old sweaters, which were heavy and uncomfortable in the warm weather. The old jerseys will now be exchanged for the new ones, which numbers on the back. The new sweaters are maroon with large white numbers on the back. The Baldwin uniform is topped with white hosiery.
Gradually the mass of boys reporting daily for practice at Pierce field is beginning to take on the form of a football squad. Coach Robinson is giving considerable attention to building the squad on plays, and extensive explanations of each play are prominent in the daily program.
The first game is scheduled for Sept. 29 with Hazel Park. It will be played on the Pierce gridiron.

ROBERT SURREY CLOTHES
INSPIRED by CAMPUS LEADERS
DESIGNED BY A MASTER HAND
Authenticity comes from the actual clothes worn by the undergraduates of note who lead the fashions at the style-setting universities. Their ideas are quickly followed by men long out of college, each of whom remains a leader.
Precision of line and drape is given by the master who has spent years among style-wise young men, in and out of college, observing and guiding their tastes.
