

MISS FOWLER TO SHOW ART WORK

Birmingham Painter Plans Exhibit Sunday Afternoon at Community House

An exhibition of the work of one of Birmingham's best known artists, Miss Eva Fowler, of Minor road, will be shown at the Community House Sunday afternoon. It will include oil paintings, water colors and lithographs, and will be open to the public without an admission charge.

Although the formal exhibit is scheduled only for the two hours from 2 to 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the paintings will be left hanging at the Community House throughout the week, and may be seen at all hours the House is open.

Miss Fowler, who has lived in Birmingham about three years, is a member of several art associations, including the Southern States Art League and the College Art Association of America. One of her works to be shown at the exhibit will be a batik, which was awarded a money prize and an engraved reward of merit at an exhibit in New Orleans in 1930.

In 1921, two of Miss Fowler's oil paintings exhibited at a New York art show received a complimentary notice from the French critic M. de Montal-Faubella, in an article published in La Revue Moderne, a Parisian journal.

Miss Fowler has traveled extensively and has studied both abroad and in this country. She studied art history under M. Carl of the Alliance Francaise, Paris, and received a diploma in art under Dr. John Shapley of Chicago University.

In 1924, she received a scholarship from the summer school of Boston University for study in Europe.

New Motorists' Liability Law Seen As Factor For Justice and Safety

The Michigan Automobile Owners' and Operators' Financial Responsibility Law, which was enacted at the last session of the Legislature and became effective Oct. 16, will doubtless prove doubly beneficial, in the opinion of Mrs. Harold G. Ead of the Ead Insurance Agency, 1121 Birmingham boulevard, in an interview she outlined the principal provisions of the law and explained how it will be a factor for justice and safety.

"The law provides that any motorist who fails to satisfy, within 30 days, any final judgment which is the outcome of an automobile accident causing the injury or death of any person or property damage in excess of $200, will forfeit his right to drive or register any motor vehicle," Mrs. Ead said.

"For the purpose of this law, a judgment shall be considered satisfied if $5,000 is paid in the case of one person injured, $10,000 in the case of more than one (subject to the limit of $5,000 per person) or $1,000 in the case of material damage to the property of others; whenever a judgment shall be in excess of these respective amounts, this does not lessen in any way, however, the plaintiff's right of civil action to recover the total amount decreed.

"In addition to paying the judgment, the defendant motorist must also furnish satisfactory evidence of his financial ability to respond in damages for any future accident for which he may be held legally accountable. Similarly, any motorist whose driving license or registration certificate has been suspended because of a violation of the traffic laws must prove his financial responsibility before he is again permitted to operate or register any motor vehicle.

"This important new law applies not only to Michigan residents but to non-residents as well. Furthermore, this law is effective as regards Michigan motorists wherever the accident occurs or is reported, whether the accident happened anywhere in the United States or Canada, the secretary of state in Michigan shall immediately suspend the defendant's Michigan driving license and registration certificate.

"Satisfactory proof of financial responsibility for future accidents may be furnished in either of three ways: (1) by depositing with the state treasurer cash or acceptable collateral to the amount of $11,000; (2) by filing an acceptable surety bond to like amount or (3) by carrying $5,000 to $10,000 automobile liability insurance and $1,000 automobile property damage insurance covering all motor vehicles owned by the insured; such insurance to be issued by a company authorized to do business in Michigan or in the state in which the policyholder lives, or from which he obtains his operating and car licenses.

"In Mrs. Ead's opinion, this law will make more certain the payment of damages to the innocent victims of motor car accidents, and what is even more important, will tend to make all motorists operate with greater regard for highway safety.

A crime! I could go on forever. Worship of Precedence. Millions of laws govern America, and the greatest of the legal mind have not the slightest idea of most of them—nor their importance. A favorite court procedure is to face a situation requiring adjudication, then cast back as far as necessary for a precedent by which to judge it.

In this age, when the machine altered the whole course of human life, legal lights frequently cast back for precedent; the judgment of men who never dreamed of a horseless carriage, who read by the light of a tallow candle, and decay as the years passed, and because it traveled 75 miles an hour damned the railroad train as a device of the devil for the destruction of man.

This must pass. America will throw off this yoke of archaic habits. The people, fed up with Main street murders, idiotic legal tortures and outright corruption, will assert themselves. They will put a direct question, and they will get a direct answer.

A Call For Uncle Sam. You will be entirely safe in the prognostication that when they do get it, it will come from one no less than Uncle Sam himself.

When the heard of that gentleman bristles with indignation and his mighty biceps writhe, a humanist at the desperado who is the national disgrace, things will happen. Not until then!

Scotland Yard offers a lot of Americans can learn. Hair is efficient as the New York police, it is twice as effective. Missouri offers a ponderable thought, when his country was crime-ridden and virtually hopeless, delivered, he has cleaned it up, polished it, renewed its public pride.

He offers it as a sample of what centralized power can do when it comes to decapitating a monster spawned in ignorance, nurtured inspired the powers of their local governing functions.

Call a cop! Call a cop by all means. But may God grant that he will figuratively wear striped trousers, a spangled coat, a lacy plug hat and a flowing bow. Then he will be the cop who will give deliverance for American business and home life. He will be Uncle Sam.

Miss Graves, who is head of the Employment Bureau of the Lucid Private Secretarial School, in Grand Rapids, relies entirely on the telephone in contacting both employers and applicants. She says:

"We use the telephone exclusively in placing applicants. And we will not accept an application that does not give a telephone number."

Other things being equal, the applicant for employment who can be reached quickly and easily by telephone is likely to be the first called to work. Telephone service pays its way. Order a telephone today. Installation will be made promptly.

LEE TO TALK ON RUFF LAW

Legislator To Address First Meeting Of Women Voters League

Melvin H. Lee, of Royal Oak, state representative from this district, will be the speaker at the first meeting of the season of the Birmingham Branch of the League of Women Voters, to be held Monday afternoon at the Community House.

Mr. Lee's talk will concern the new Ruff election law, which was passed by the State Legislature on the last day of its 1933 session, and against which Mr. Lee voted and against which a state-wide campaign is being waged by petition.

The members of the League of Women Voters are circulating the petitions in Birmingham, working in co-operation with the Detroit Citizens League. The League hopes to obtain 30,000 signatures throughout the state, the number required to force the state to call a referendum on the law at the election in November, 1934.

If the petitions, with the required number of signatures, are filed by Oct. 15, the law will not become effective until after the referendum. The petitions will continue to be circulated in Birmingham until Oct. 15, when Mrs. Angus D. McLay, president of the Birmingham Branch of the League.

The Ruff law calls for the return of bi-partisan election boards, and opposition to it is based on the argument that it will increase corruption and unfairness in municipal politics, Mrs. McLay said.

"Close observers of government feel that this law, which was introduced although the State Legislature at the last minute this year, will tend only to create wasteful and political barriers to municipal administration," she declared.

The League's meeting Monday will begin at 2 P. M., when Mr. Lee's talk scheduled for 3, when the session will be open to the public, Mrs. McLay said.

Call a Cop

By Charles Francis Coo, eminent criminologist and author of "Mr. Big Gangster," "Swag," "Vots" . . . and other startling crime stories.

If every city in the United States did away with its criminal investigation police and turned that function over to the Federal Government, I believe crime would be reduced to its minimum in very brief time. If cities handled traffic, protected life and property and policed as the uniformed force generally does, there would be no important corruption.

If, when major criminal offenses were recorded in any city, the Federal Government gave that city three days to apprehend the criminal, then, that failing, took over the investigation itself, there could be no corruption that would revert to destruction of honest investigation and expeditious solution of crime. What is more, I believe that day will come.

The detectives of the United States will be like its soldiers. They will never know their next point of call. They will operate under centralized orders from Washington. They will have at their fingertips a complete international identification bureau.

They will use radio, telegraph, telephone, photography, fingerprints, denture measurements, Use, in fact, every science known to criminal detection. And they will succeed in the job only as they succeed in the individual tasks of solution laid upon their shoulders. And more than that, they will walk through about as tradition folderl as a fireman poses through a wisp of smoke.

Crime will be a high society, not against a county or a city or a state. Prosecution will be by a state, not by a political party, not by a political organization dependent for living upon the votes of a few communities. Crime will be a high menace to the decency of life, the administration of business and the sanctity of the home. It will be treated as such.

Then solution will be sure in the vast majority of cases. They will never know their next point of call. They will operate under centralized orders from Washington. They will have at their fingertips a complete international identification bureau.

A BURNING MATCH WON'T SELL Your Merchandise!

A BURNING MATCH in a dark store will give a certain amount of light . . . but no modern merchant would think of trying to show merchandise to a customer by means of lighted matches. Yet many merchants do not realize the power of better lighting in show windows and show cases in increasing sales. Here are two interesting tests that show results:

- (1) A display of dry goods in the show window of a retail store was lighted to an intensity of 15. Only 11 per cent of the people on the street paused to look at the window. The lighting was raised to an intensity of 100, and 21 per cent of the people stopped to look at the same display. BETTER LIGHTING PRACTICALLY DOUBLED THE DRAWING POWER OF THE SHOW WINDOW!
  - (2) In the interior of a store with a general illumination intensity of about 3, a show case was dark. Only 13 per cent of the passersby stopped to look at the display. When an illumination intensity of 35 was supplied within the show case, 30 per cent of the people stopped to look. GOOD LIGHTING MORE THAN DOUBLED THE ATTRACTION VALUE OF THE SHOW CASES!
- Detroit Edison engineers will measure your store lighting without charge, and tell you definitely how it compares with standard present-day lighting. It will pay you to KNOW whether your illumination is of the desired quality. This is a part of your service and there is no obligation.
