FRANCIS PALMS, JR. WILL WED IN EAST

Nuptials To Add New Chapter To Romance Of College Days

A romance dating back to college days at the University of Michigan will culminate, on May 4, in the wedding of Miss Anne M. Tobin, formerly of Niles, Mich., now of Douglaston, N. Y., and Francis Palms, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills.

The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Ring Lardner of East Hampton, L. I., at 4 o'clock. Miss Tobin will be attended by her sisters, Miss Blanche Tobin, a maid of honor, and by Mrs. Richard Overton of Williamston, Mass., formerly of Ann Arbor, as bridesmaid. Edward Askin Skie, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, will be best man, assisted by Richard L. Tobin, brother of the bride-elect.

Following the ceremony the young couple will leave for Europe, where they plan to spend six months, passing the greater part of the time in France, Holland and England, where Mr. Palms will continue his architectural studies.

Miss Tobin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Tobin, resided in Niles, and when she was followed by the University of Michigan. Mr. Palms entered the University School of Architecture following his graduation from Williams College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Palms of Bloomfield Hills.

Carl Rupp's Niftie Stirs Curiosity Among Players

The curiosity of Village Players has been aroused and is not to be satisfied until just before the final curtain at their performance Saturday evening, April 28, at the Playhouse. The cause of this bit of suspense is a mere "niftie," written and arranged by Carl Rupp. But the title is "Private Moments from the Private Lives of Players," and members are somewhat anxiously awaiting its presentation.

This niftie will close the program and will be followed by the usual "afterglow." An interesting array of titles and Players have been lined up for the major portion of the show.

"The Grand Chorus Diamond," by Allen Monksheue, will be the first of three one-act plays. Mrs. George P. Rayne is the director, assisted by Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning. Those in the cast are Mrs. Robert T. Tibbels, H. G. Muchman, Mrs.

MUSICALES TO GIVE SPRING PROGRAM

A circle of spring songs by Mable W. Daniels will be sung by the Musicales Chorus as an opening number, with Mrs. Russell W. Hardman singing the solo parts.

The group will include "The Awakening," "Apple Blossoms," "The West Wind and The May," and "Spring Herald." Miss Elizabeth Heck will accompany the chorists.

The first half of the program will also include violin solos by Mrs. Dorothy G. Roosevelt, the first of which will be the prelude to "Delight" by Saint Saens, and the second, a minuet by Huicksteins. Mrs. Thomas C. Corin will accompany Mrs. Roosevelt.

Scenes at tables in a drawing room scene, members of the chorus will offer the second half of the program. They will consist of a group of familiar and semi-classical airs, with solos by Mrs. Hardman, Mrs. Frederick A. Proctor, Mrs. Frank Campbell, and Mrs. Ralph Hetrick. The closing number will be a duet by Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Hardman, combining the violin and piano accompaniment.
