Nuptial Rites Read In Pilgrim Chapel

Palms and tapers in tall candleabra formed the background for a pretty wedding solemnized Saturday evening in Pilgrim Chapel of the North Woodward Congregational Church, when Mrs. Antoinette Paton and Montgomery assistant Henry Holdridge Watchpocket were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George S. Yaple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Goodrich of Windsor, Ont. Until last June, when she moved to Detroit, she made her home in Birmingham for 16 years. Mr. Watchpocket is the son of John Watchpocket of Watkins Lake.

For her bridal attire, Mrs. Watchpocket chose a gown of angel skin lace in praline beige, with which she wore a small silk crepe train in a matching shade of beige. She carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill and Talisman roses.

Mrs. Margot Goodrich, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a gown of blue pink Mouseline de soie and a large hat with white veils and a large hat with pink briar roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Goodrich, mother of the bride, chose a black lace gown on which she wore a corsage of roses and sweet peas.

Douglas H. Haynes of Elizabeth Lake assisted Mr. Watchpocket as best man.

A dinner for members of the bridal party and the family was held at Ingleside Club following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Watchpocket will make their home in Detroit.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Weir Burkman of Madison avenue had as their guests at dinner and bridge Tuesday evening, Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Norton, Dr. and Mrs. J. Paul Conkie, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Holland-Moritz.

MRS. PATON HEADS NEW COMMITTEE

She Will Direct Campaign In Oakland For Reorganization of County Government

Mrs. C. R. Paton of Drury Lane was elected chairman of a county committee organized Tuesday at a committee meeting in Pontiac, called by William Lovett of the Detroit Citizens League. The purpose of the meeting was to outline plans for the circulation of petitions supporting the proposed amendment to the state constitution for the reorganization of county government.

The Birmingham League of Women Voters was one of about 15 county organizations invited to attend the meeting. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paton, further appointments will be made to the committee, and plans formulated for circulating the petitions. Attending the meeting also from Birmingham were Mrs. Angus D. McRay, local League president, and Mrs. Edward L. Bryant.

A campaign appealing to all churches and organizations in cities, villages and rural districts throughout the county, exclusive of Birmingham, to aid in the circulation of petitions, will be directed by her committee, Mrs. Paton announced.

A similar campaign also will be launched in Birmingham by the Birmingham League of Women Voters, to aid in the department of efficiency in government.

Another member of the county committee attending the meeting in Pontiac was Mrs. Roy C. Jenner, a member of the municipal committee of Pontiac. Mrs. Jenner will serve as secretary.

Mrs. D. W. Russell of Safford had returned Wednesday from a brief visit to St. Louis, Mo.
