Couple To Speak Nuptial Vows At Garden Wedding

The garden surrounding the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Thompson Mason of Venable road, Grosse Pointe, will form a natural floral background Saturday afternoon when their daughter, Helen Houghton Mason, and Harold Thomas Ellerby, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Ellerby of Adams road, will be united in marriage.

The service will be read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Robert M. Atkins, pastor of the Central Methodist Church of Pontiac. Only members of the family and a few close friends will witness the ceremony. Miss Adelaide Mason will be her sister's only attendant, and Richard Ellerby will assist his brother as best man.

A wedding gown modeled on simple, classic lines has been chosen by the bride-elect for this most important event. The material is an egg-shell white, crinkled satin crepe, the gown is simply designed with high neckline, cut in point, suggestive of flower petals, and with long sleeves puffed above the elbow and tapering to the wrist. The bodice and skirt are arranged on close fitting, slender lines, with the skirt ending in a short train. The only ornament is a class of rhinestones at the waistline. The bridal veil of delicate lace will extend to the end of the brief train.

Miss Mason will entertain members of the family at luncheon at the Country Club in Grosse Pointe. They will also entertain relatives and out-of-town guests at dinner at the Country Club Friday evening.

The young couple will leave for a motor trip after the reception. On their return, they will make their home at the Seville Apartments in Detroit. Both Miss Mason and Mr. Ellerby were graduates from the University of Michigan in June. Mr. Ellerby will continue his legal education in Detroit. Miss Mason is a descendant of Stevens Thompson Mason, the first governor of Michigan.

PINE LAKE HOLDS CLUB CELEBRATION

Large Crowd Witnesses Medal Play Golf Tournament And Water Sports

The golf course was the magnet that drew the greatest crowd, with an 18-hole medal play tournament which continued until 5 P. M. A diving contest at that hour was of particular interest to the juniors, who enthusiastically hailed Frank Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Savage of East Maple road, as the winner.

Due to wet weather early in the week, the tennis tournament suffered a set-back so that the finals could not be played on Saturday as previously named.

In the evening, golfers, swimmers and tennis players forgot, while the young couples to dine and dance as the closing pleasure arranged for the day. Among those from Birmingham making reservations were Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gray, for 18 guests and Mr. and Mrs. C. LeRoy Austin.
