89 Years Old, Big Beaver Church Has Colorful Past

The Big Beaver Methodist Episcopal Church, 89 years old this year, has a colorful history among the older churches in this part of the state...

The history of the church dates back to 1845, or perhaps slightly before that year. The church was first organized by a Methodist missionary who brought together those of the community who professed his faith and established regular preaching places at the homes of the pioneers...

Charles Member Sullivan, who joined the Bible Class in 1874, was a charter member of the new church when it was completed and dedicated the following year...

Part of Troy Circuit The connection with Birmingham was severed in 1873, when the church became a part of the Troy circuit...

Forester's Clout, With Winchell on Third, Beats Oakland Dairy Juniors

Big Dick Forester, the Birmingham Athletic Club's sturdy first baseman, broke up the Oakland Dairy Juniors of Pontiac on the East Maple diamond on Sunday with a lusty clout in the 10th inning...

The visitors got all their runs in three innings—the first, fifth and 10th. Tony Schultz, Birmingham's starting pitcher, was nipped for three tallies in the opening frame on a single, two triples and an error...

Tom Miller, who had never before pitched for the Athletics, was called in to relieve him and did a remarkable job. One more run came in before he was ousted...

Next Sunday, the Birmingham nine will clash with the Wall Lake team at Wall Lake. The Lake team at last Sunday's game followed:

2 SISTERS HURT WHEN CAR RAMS INTO TRUCK

Two sisters were slightly injured Monday when their automobile crashed into the rear of a truck which had stopped on Woodward avenue at Brown street for a red traffic light.

Miss Ann Atchison, 23 years old, of 6639 Van Dyke avenue, Detroit, the driver, said the brakes on her car refused to work. She sustained a cut on the head. Her sister, Edna Atchison, 28 years old, of the same address, was cut on the head and left leg.
