MRS. EWEN HEADS ANNUAL BOOK SALE

Harvest Of Volumes Begun By University Women To Aid Scholarships

Mrs. Douglas H. Ewen of Bloomfield Village has been named general chairman for the annual book sale sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women. The sale this year will be held from Oct. 15 to 29, inclusive.

Mrs. C. F. Dye of Bryn Mawr road is chairman of the committee on solicitation, and Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall of Ferndale avenue is chairman of transportation. Mrs. Willard L. Dayton of Shirley drive is in charge of sorting and marking.

Those wishing to make contributions of books are asked to call Mrs. Hascall, or to take their donations to Baldwin Public Library. The sale is held each year for the benefit of scholarship funds.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rothman of Wellesley drive were hosts at an informal dinner for nine guests Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Root of Pierce street, their daughter, Doris, and son, Bennett, were guests for the week-end at Orland, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington of Waddington road, with Mr. Sappington's mother, Mrs. Lewis J. Sappington, and their twin daughters, Joan and Judy, motored to Wallon Lake for the week-end to visit their son, Lewis, who is attending Camp Sherwood. The latter is expected to return on Saturday.

Mrs. Charles L. Winghamam of Bloomfield Downs was hostess at luncheon for her sewing bee on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mack of Puritan road were hosts at an informal supper Sunday evening for a small group including Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mrs. and Mrs. J. Z. Lander and Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Valpey.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Reiter of Pilgrim road and their daughter, Jane, were guests for the week-end at Saginaw.

News Of Betrothal Told By Bride-Elect

An engagement made known this week was that of Miss Dorothy Marguerite Hogben, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hogben of Rivenoak road, and William C. Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Harrison, also of Detroit. The marriage will be solemnized Friday, Sept. 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hogben, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Hogben will be attended by her cousin, Miss Vera Hogben of Pleasant Ridge, as maid of honor, and by Mrs. Jack Hamilton of Detroit, as matron of honor. Claster Dixon of Pleasant Ridge and Jack Hamilton of Detroit will attend Mr. Harrison. An informal reception will follow the ceremony.

Among the social events planned in honor of Miss Hogben's approaching marriage was a miscellaneous shower given Monday evening by Miss Berence Ahen of Uavis street.

The guests included Mrs. James Duran of Detroit, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Clive Wright, Miss Alecia Gottchalk, Miss Elenore Gottchalk, Mrs. William Halsey, Miss Ella Barker, Miss Lucille Jarrett, Miss Sara Smith, Miss Jane Coberly and her guest, Miss Helen Fritch of Dayton. Another shower is set for Friday, Aug. 31, at which Mrs. Dixon will be hostess. Miss Hogben was graduated from Baldwin High School in 1932. Mr. Harrison attended Detroit schools.

Miss Virginia Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Watson of Puritan road, is making an extended visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Smith of Ann Arbor, at their summer home at Bass Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Francisco of Lone Pine Estates have returned from a motor trip through New York and other eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanley Ford of Rivenoak road and their children, Jane Ellen and Stanley, Jr., returned Saturday from a sojourn at Higgins Lake.

Mrs. Raymond P. Fohey of Argyle drive and Mrs. Byron C. Carse of Detroit left Monday to spend a month at Lake Placid, N. Y. Mr. Fohey and Mr. Carse will motor up this week-end to join their wives.

Mrs. George D. Miller of Fairfax road entertained nine small guests Monday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday of her son, George. At the party were Peggy Booth, Elizabeth Miller, Tommy Joslyn, Dickie Kent, Dickie Austin, Emily Dayton and Larry and Roger King of Pleasant Ridge.
