Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

Springdale Park entertained one of its largest picnics of the season yesterday when 1,000 employes of the Consumers Power Company and their relatives and friends came to play golf, tennis and other games, eat a huge picnic supper, and dance in the clubhouse in the evening. The picnickers came from Consumers Power Plants and offices in all sections of southeastern Michigan.

Sergeant William Green and Patrolmen Sam Stinson and Robert Dunn of the Birmingham police department were among the officers who aided Clawson police and sheriff's deputies in their unsuccessful search Sunday for Joseph Hawlick in the woods near his home in Clawson. Although he eluded the officers in the woods after leaving his house through a cellar window, Hawlick was later arrested in Detroit, and is now facing trial in Flint after confessing to a series of armed robberies. Hawlick is a former deputy sheriff and candidate for the Clawson Village Commission.

Honesty deserves a little meritorious publicity, in the opinion of Mrs. Evelyn Miller of West Lincoln road. While driving to Pontiac Monday evening, Mrs. Miller dropped her pocket-book on the running board of her car, and it bounced off without her knowledge. A day or so later, a young man who gave his name as Mike Hogan of Meadow street, Pontiac, found the purse on his way to St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, where he was going for treatment. Hogan walked from the hospital to Mrs. Miller's residence to return it to its owner. As a reward for his honesty, Mrs. Miller divided the contents of the purse with him and sent him back to the hospital in her car. Hogan said he was ill and out of employment.

Put little snap fasteners on your collar and cuff sets and your dresses. They are much easier to remove and launder than when basted in.

SATURDAY LAST DAY FOR RE-REGISTRATION

Voters who have moved into Birmingham, or from one precinct to another within the city since the last election, have until Saturday afternoon, Sept. 1, to re-register and thus make themselves eligible for ballots in the Sept. 11 primaries. Re-registrations must be made at the city clerk's office in the Municipal Building.

more than a half hour without filling his creel.

First appearances are often deceptive. Consider the case of the landlady who was showing a prospect through the room. Said she: "A professor formerly occupied this room. He invented an explosive." And the prospect asked: "Ah, I suppose those spots on the ceiling are the explosive." Sadly the landlady shook her head: "No, they are the professor."

The golfer who has paid up his club dues, settled for some lessons and bought an entire outfit, found it hard to believe that the game started in Scotland.

Johnson, Howdie Whalen also got a single and Wilson drew a pass, filling the bases. Freeman singled to left, scoring H. Johnson.

With the bases still loaded, and the tying run on second and the winning run on first, Hank Whalen hit a bounder to Canever at third. Howdie Whalen scored on the hit but Canever's throw beat Hank to first, and Stevens' peg caught Wilson coming into the plate, completing a double play and ending the game.

The box scores of the three series games follow:

"want any advice from office holders on how to vote."

Senator Couzens began the celebration of his birthday on Friday by taking his four youngest grandchildren on a cruise in the yacht he has chartered for the summer. The cruise ended Sunday morning, and a large family gathering was held that evening at the Senator's farm, Woodcock, on West Lone Lake road.

Mrs. Couzens gave her husband her customary gift by providing a two-weeks' vacation at summer camps for 230 children.

Tuesday, the Senator left on another fishing cruise in Georgian Bay, planning to return Sept. 7, when his vacation will have ended. He expects to be called to Washington some time in October, to begin work as a member of a special committee appointed to reorganize the governmental system of the District of Columbia.

a member of the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star.

He was elected to the City Commission for a two-year term in April, 1933, placing fourth in a field of 17 candidates. He was also elected to the city charter commission in September, 1932, but was unable to serve, and Lawrence Hulbert was appointed to take his place. Mr. Vliet was appointed by the City Commission to be one of Birmingham's four representatives on the Board of Supervisors in the spring of 1933, and was re-appointed last April. This spring and summer he served on the important equalization committee of the Board.

Mrs. Vliet plans to join her husband in Bellevue in a short time. Their home here is at 418 Brown street.

is finally approved locally, the city will be in no position to furnish a cash outlay for any part of it, and that any portion of the project which might not be able to qualify for a grant of federal funds would probably have to be covered by a loan from the PWA.

The city's current Work Wage project, reconstruction of Wilder Woodward, Adams avenue and connecting sewers—is nearly completed. Machine work on the project was ended yesterday, and the remaining hand labor will be finished by the end of next week, Mr. Harry said. About 150 feet at the north end of the Adams sewer, and approximately 700 feet of connecting sewers on Riverdale and Kennesaw avenues will not be completed on this project, he said.

STOLEN CAR ABANDONED

A car belonging to C. J. Brammse, manager of the Birmingham Credit Bureau, which was stolen here Tuesday noon, was found abandoned in Pontiac, Pontiac police reported yesterday. The car, a sedan, was parked on Henrietta street near West Maple avenue when it was taken.
