ALGER FARM SCENE OF HUNTERS' SHOW

Viola Hammond Wins Trophy in Class For Michigan Bred Hunters

Metamora drew a large and enthusiastic gallery of equestrian-minded spectators Saturday when the annual hunters' and breeders' show was held on the estate of Frederick M. Alger, Jr. There were "among those present" the usual names and faces of those perennial devotees inseparably linked with all events associated with horsemanship.

Miss Viola Hammond lived up to the traditions of her family by winning the silver trophy with her horse Checkers, in the class for hunters bred in Michigan. Others equally famous in equestrian circles, who were on hand to watch the progress of their entries and those of their friendly competitors, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, with Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Brodin, Miss Susan Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott S. Nichols, accompanied by their children, Elizabeth, Ann, Charlotte and Nick; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blackwood, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin F. Killohour, Miss Florence Skae, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. William Reeve Clark, William T. Barbour, Jr.; Mrs. Laura Butler Higbie, with her guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Magnin of Milwaukee; their daughter, Miss Jane, and Mrs. Higbie's daughter, Miss Geraldine. Others scoring triumphs were Miss Hammond, who won a ribbon for clear cut jumps over the fences in pairs and Miss Susan Briggs, who was successful in several classes.

Barn Dance Calls Forth Round of Dinner Parties

The benefit dance held at "The Barn" on Auburn and Dojds roads Wednesday evening gave an impetus to social affairs in the Hills this week, and was the occasion for a number of dinner and cocktail parties.

Sponsoring the affair was the Women's Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, presided over by Mrs. Joseph A. Braun of "Linda Vista" in the Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Braun were among those entertaining before the dance, at a cocktail party for 24 guests. Mayor and Mrs. Frank V. O'Brien figured prominently among the hosts at the dance, and were also hosts to 12 guests at dinner at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club before taking their party to "The Barn".

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Hammond entertained eight guests at dinner at their home in the Hills, and Mrs. T. R. Donovan of "The Hill" was also a guest at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Leland entertained 18 guests at a buffet supper at their home in the Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. James Vhay of Lone Pine road were also hosts at dinner for 18 guests.

Besides Mayor Couzens and Mrs. Couzens, others who served in the official capacities of host and hostess at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. James Q. Goudie, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. and Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus, Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus D. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. E. C. Skae, Dr. and Mrs. J. Murphy, Mrs. William Traub, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Hackett, Mrs. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Benning, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Voorhees, Mr. and Mrs. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Eckhart and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn D. Allen.

Mrs. Kennedy was chairman of the executive committee in charge of the dance, assisted by Mrs. Braun, Mrs. William Traub, Mrs. Charles E. Braden, Mrs. Perry I. Gauker and Miss Madge LaBelle. Proceeds of the dance will be used for the maintenance of a clinic at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

Nuptial Vows Are Spoken At Pretty Home Ceremony

Palms and baskets of late summer blooms, banked against a fireplace of white stone, formed a lovely background for the wedding ceremony Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, which united Mr. Katherine B. Zigarski, Keller of Lansing and William Cameron Davis, Jr., of Battle Creek.

The nuptial service was read at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Keller of Riverside drive, Beverly Hills, by the Rev. J. R. McWilliams, pastor of the Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church. Attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis of Benton Harbor, parents of the bridegroom. Others witnessing the event included relatives and a few close friends.

Miss Cara Mae Keller was her sister's only attendant, and Groomsmen of Detroit assisted Mr. Davis as best man.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a becoming gown of harvest green satin, finished with a short train and butcher boy jacket, and matching accessories. Her bouquet was of fall-toned roses.

The gown worn by Miss Cara Mae Keller, was made similar to the bride's with a butcher boy jacket also. A corsage bouquet of roses, lilies and sweet peas completed her costume.
