you'll find several answers to questions about what to give this Christmas. No matter what the age range (from baby to the grandparents) we believe we can suggest something appropriate, useful and sufficiently different to make the gift really welcome. We invite you to come in and "look around". You'll probably enjoy the visit and quite possibly you'll find that you also did some advantageous shopping for vourself.

• • • and may we also suggest that other stores and shops in Birmingham are really making a successful effort in providing you with practical gift values . . . so that the "Shop in values so that the "Shop in Birmingham" habit is painlessly easy to acquire this year.
