WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Howard C. Holak, manager of the Birmingham Theater: "Initiative is the ability to do the right thing at the right time—without being told to do it." Lots of automobile news... H. Shuart is working hard on the Detroit Auto Show already... John Chick is doing a coast-to-coast sales tour for Cadillac... Carl Hilty was with Dorothy Schwabe at the Phi Psi's Thanksgiving dinner-dance at the Webster Hall last week... Frank Bozart was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital after his car hit a safety zone guard in Highland Park a few nights back... Marcelline Granger is secretary of the French Club at the University of Detroit... Donald Neal has a license to marry Catherine Stecker of Pontiac... Gus O'Dell, who got a bear as well as a buck last hunting season, didn't get anything for the state... younger is authority for the state... that when his dad went deer hunting he brought back a great big—Christmas tree... Personal nomination for the title of one of the town's best-looking women. Mrs. Theron Van Dusen. Julius Blackman has been granted a divorce from his wife, Bobbie Bill Essery attended the University of Michigan "bus" in Detroit Saturday night... And Walt Bromley was late getting to the Goodfellows show... Clarence Vliet is president of the Men's Club at Bellevue... All of Jack him to tell them the story about the boy and the 15-year-old rye. Pauline Chick has been pledged to the Alpha Theta Literary Society at Alma College... Harry Allen was too ill to attend the Commission meeting Monday night, and because Arthur Brandt couldn't attend, Lawrence Hubbers filled the gavel... Eschert for AAA emergency road calls, Dan Abbey has been spotted in the new Birmingham telephone book... Don't forget the Goodfellows' Saturday!
