Winter Formal Makes Change In Social Era

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

The pendulum in social affairs seems to be swinging back from the small, informal party of the mid-depression era to the more formal and elaborate occasion in keeping with the current trend.

It may be recalled that the mid-winter dance given a year ago by members of Orchard Lake Country Club was an informal cabaret affair. This year, the party will be held at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club Saturday evening.

The affair is attracting wide interest as, may be seen by the increasing number of Birmingham parties planned both in Birmingham and the Hills preceding the event.

Meysers To Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. W. Meyer of Midland drive will be hosts at a canape party for a number of friends before the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Micon of Puritan road will be hosts at a rather large dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Perry Williams of Guilford road also will have dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Davidson of Overhill road have invited to dine with them Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pittman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hone, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hallsted, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Darmstadt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hood and Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald U. Bathrick of Randall court will entertain eight guests at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Roney of Great Pointe. Following dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Bathrick will take their guests to the 10th anniversary
