STUDENTS PLAN WINTER FORMAL

Student-Faculty Committee Arranging Dance To Be Held In Kingswood Auditorium

The annual mid-winter dance to be given by students of Kingswood School Cranbrook will be held in the auditorium of the school Saturday evening. Patrons for the event include Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grier, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Mrs. Grace Booth Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Erb.

Miss Frances Reese is general chairman, assisted by two committees composed of faculty and student members. Those of the faculty are Dr. Katharine Rogers Adams, Miss Letitia McQuillan, Miss Ada Hyde, and Miss Helen Hosp.

The student committee includes the Misses Patricia Floyd, Anne Booth, Frances Anne Morley, Martha Werneken, Mary Louise Viger, June Hesse, Betty Bird and Mary Louise Martin.

Another event of interest to be held at the school will be a concert by two members of the faculty on Sunday evening. Miss Hosp, soprano, and Miss Reese, violinist, will share honors on the program. The former was a member of the Glee Clubs of Goucher College and Cornell University and of the Civic Light Opera Company in New York City. Miss Reese, who is a graduate of Wellesley College, studied also at the Wooster College Conservatory, Cleveland Institute of Music and the Conservatoire Americain at Fontainebleau, France.

Miss Hosp is an instructor in music and drama, and Miss Reese is engaged in organizing an orchestra at Kingswood School.

Furniture Design, Letters And Health, Club Topics

The influence of applied design on American furniture of various periods, present day writers in prose, drama and poetry, and discussions in bacteriology affecting public health, constituted the program topics for three departments of the Women's Literary Club which met Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber of Oak street was hostess to members of the art department at luncheon at her home. The program which followed was devoted to a study of design as expressed in furniture. Mrs. Byron Winborn was chairman for the day. Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas gave a resume of the life of Duncan Phyffe and characterized his work. Mrs. R. E. Everal discussed early American and Colonial furniture, and Mrs. John P. Wood discussed Continental types, and also spoke briefly on present furniture styles.

Modern authors in various branches of their profession, including fiction and non-fiction, poetry and drama, offered material for an interesting program presented by members of the literary department at the home of Mrs. Fred W. Johnson of Adams road.

Mrs. H. D. Harris was in charge of the program. Those taking part were Mrs. H. H. Gilbert, Mrs. George E. A. Hallett, Mrs. Fred S. Ross, Mrs. Walter L. Moreland, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. M. S. Mills and Mrs. E. S. Barden. Tea was served following the program.

"Insect Menace to Public Health" was the program topic for the American home department, which met for a pot-luck luncheon at the home of the Misses Lucy and Esther Purdy of Frank street. Mrs. Robert S. Phillips acted as chairman. Bacteriological studies of the insects which spread the more serious infectious diseases were given by Mrs. Hattie Schlaack, Mrs. J. M. Rainey, Mrs. Leon B. Mix and Mrs. James W. Cobb.

The meeting of the World's Work department was postponed until Feb. 27, when it will be held at the home of Mrs. Victor L. Peck of Hanna street for luncheon at 1 P. M.
